Overboard! Michael J. Tougias,2010-03-16 From masterful storyteller Michael J Tougias comes a heart stopping true life tale of death and survival at sea a thrilling edge of your seat chronicle of what happens when a sailboat goes up against a fierce storm in the heart of the Gulf Stream The Providence Journal In May 2005 Tom Tighe captain of a forty five foot long sailboat named the Almeisan and his first mate Loch Reidy welcomed three new crewmembers for a five day voyage from Connecticut across the blue waters of the Gulf Stream to sun drenched Bermuda The new crew included forty six year old Kathy Gilchrist seventy year old Ron Burd and thirty four year old Chris Ferrer Although Tighe had made the trip forty eight times with Reidy accompanying him on twenty of those voyages the rest of the crew had joined to learn more about offshore sailing Four days into the voyage an enormous storm struck sweeping two of the crew into the towering sea The remaining crewmembers managed to stay aboard the vessel as it was slowly torn apart by the rampaging ocean Overboard follows the simultaneous desperate struggles of both those still on the boat and those fighting for their lives in the sea The Coast Guard alerted to the Almeisan s distress rushed to the storm tossed scene Their ensuing search and rescue mission proved so spectacularly difficult and dangerous that it was later selected from among thousands of incidents as the Guard's search and rescue case of the year. Highly trained helicopter pilots and rescue swimmers alike found themselves in almost as much trouble as those trapped by the ferocious ocean. By turns tragic, thrilling, and deeply inspiring, Overboard is a riveting, fast-paced story about a maritime disaster, amazing, unforgettable, and all true. Ten Hours Until Dawn Michael J.

Tougas, 2007-04-01 In the midst of the Blizzard of 1978, the tanker Global Hope floundered on the shoals in Salem Sound off the Massachusetts coast. The Coast Guard heard the Mayday calls and immediately dispatched a patrol boat. Within an hour, the Coast Guard boat was in as much trouble as the tanker, having lost its radar, depth finder, and engine power in horrendous seas. Pilot boat Captain Frank Quirk was monitoring the Coast Guard's efforts by radio, and when he heard that the patrol boat was in jeopardy, he decided to act. Gathering his crew of four, he readied his forty-nine foot steel boat, the Can Do, and entered the maelstrom of the blizzard. Using dozens of interviews and audiotapes that recorded every word exchanged between Quirk and the Coast Guard, Tougas has written a devastating, true account of bravery and death at sea in Ten Hours Until Dawn.

About Crows Craig Blais, 2013-05-17 An unsentimental and at times disquieting first collection, the poems of About Crows excavate self, family, race, location, sex, art, and religion to uncover the artifacts of a succession of traumas that the speaker does not always experience firsthand but carries with him to refashion into some new importance. This is a book of half-states, broken affiliations, and dislocation. The speaker leads the reader through the fragments of a flooded town that grows increasingly elusive the more one looks for it, through a succession of Seoul love motels that further displace the outsider to unclaimed margins transformed into sites of creative invention, through galleries of artwork where movement, color, and image are renewed through ekphrasis, and through the world of the metatextual long poem The Cult Poem, where good and bad moral binaries tangle into a rat's nest of our best and worst spiritual ambitions. The poems and sequences of About Crows are marked by their artistic balance of the sublime and the profane, of polyphony, syntactical complexity, clashing images, cagey humor, and unsettling sincerity, all trying desperately to connect. North of Quabbin Revisited Allen

Young, 2003 The Waters Between Us Michael J. Tougas, 2021-03-15 Untamed, Unsupervised, Uncontrolled: Boyhood in the 1960s and 70s was a time for exploration and mischief. Author Michael Tougas found more than his share of misadventures in the woods and on the water, some life-threatening but others innocently hilarious. Over time and after reading a multitude of adventure books, these experiences took shape in his quest to be a mountain man, owning a cabin in the forest and living off the land. Part of that dream would come true, but only after a family tragedy that shook his world and forced changes in his life. This is also a story of a complex and strained relationship between father and son, the efforts at understanding and ultimately respect and devotion. In The Waters Between Us, Tougas channels Bryson's A Walk in the Woods to mix laugh-out-loud humor with insight into the natural world through the eyes of a curious boy. Tougas is a New York Times Bestselling author and co-author of 31 books, including There's A Porcupine In My Outhouse, Winner of the
