Davidson Frame, 2012-11-19 The economic crisis of 2008 2009 was a transformational event it demonstrated that smart people aren t as smart as they and the public think The crisis arose because a lot of highly educated people in high impact positions political power brokers business leaders and large segments of the general public made a lot of bad decisions despite unprecedented access to data highly sophisticated decision support systems methodological advances in the decision sciences and guidance from highly experienced experts How could we get things so wrong The answer says I Davidson Frame in Framing Decisions Decision Making That Accounts for Irrationality People and Constraints is that traditional processes do not account for the three critical immeasurable elements highlighted in the book s subtitle irrationality people and constraints Frame argues that decision makers need to move beyond their single minded focus on rational and optimal solutions as preached by the traditional paradigm They must accommodate a decision s social space and address the realities of dissimulation incompetence legacy greed peer pressure and conflict In the final analysis when making decisions of consequence they should focus on people both as individuals and in groups Framing Decisions offers a new approach to decision making that gets decision makers to put people and social context at the heart of the decision process It offers guidance on how to make decisions in a real world filled with real people seeking real solutions to their problems

Hand-Made Television R. Moseley, 2016-04-29 Hand Made Television explores the ongoing enchantment of many of the much loved stop frame children's television programmes of 1960s and 1970s Britain The first academic work to analyse programmes such as Pogles Wood 1966 Clangers 1969 Bagpuss 1974 Smallfilms and Gordon Murray s Camberwick Green 1966 Trumpton 1967 and Chigley 1969 the book connects these series to their social and historical contexts while providing in depth analyses of their themes and hand made aesthetics Hand Made Television shows that the appeal of these programmes is rooted not only in their participatory address and evocation of a pastoral English past but also in the connection of their stop frame aesthetics to the actions of childhood play This book makes a significant contribution to both Animation Studies and Television Studies combining scholarly rigour with an accessible style it is suitable for scholars as well as fans of these iconic British children's programmes Out of the West Mrs. Caroline Lawrence Dier,1927 The World's Work .1923 The Mentor .1923 Saturday Review of Literature ,1927 An Owner's Manual for Men Ioe Nickaloff, 2011-12-02 Being a man in todays society is no easy task Men are confused and worried about their role as lovers fathers protectors leaders bread winners and role models Men rarely realize just what is expected of them and even when they do how to respond to those expectations can often be elusive In An Owners Manual For Men Author Joe Nickaloff
