Qualitative Research In Tourism Ontologies Epistemologies And Methodologies:

Qualitative Research in Tourism Lisa Goodson, Jenny Phillimore, 2004-07-31 The first book to focus solely upon qualitative research in tourism it combines discussions of the philosophies underpinning qualitative research with chapters written in a reflexive style that demonstrate the ways in which the techniques can be Asian Qualitative Research in Tourism Paolo Mura, Catheryn Khoo-Lattimore, 2018-02-21 This book explores the ontologies epistemologies methodologies and methods that inform tourism qualitative research conducted either by Asian scholars or non Asian scholars focusing on Asia In addition to providing a platform for researchers to publish their qualitative journeys it aims to encourage further Asian qualitative tourism research production The book not only includes chapters from Asian scholars but also non Asian tourism researchers with a focus on Asia as their chapters are crucial to represent the multiplicity of realities constituting Asia It is of interest to the whole tourism academic community as it provides novel methodological insights from a non Western perspective which at the moment are often silenced by dominant Western voices Qualitative Methods in Tourism Research Wendy Hillman, Kylie Radel, 2018-01-05 This volume seeks to expose and illustrate new approaches and thinking in qualitative methods that are being developed and implemented in tourism research The contributions bring together various qualitative methods and approaches while also providing suggestions for the juxtaposition of qualitative and quantitative methods in mixed methods research The book has been written with a cross disciplinary approach which provides an insight into the art of research development from business sociology and tourism perspectives The chapters provide readers with a context and practical application examples for each method They present a distinctive opportunity for social researchers from a range of disciplines in particular tourism to examine how to adapt the wide variety of qualitative approaches to their particular research needs An Introduction to Visual Research Methods in Tourism Tijana Rakić, Donna Chambers, 2011-07-27 An Introduction to Visual Research Methods in Tourism is the first book to present discuss and promote the use of a range of visual methods including still images such as photographs postcards drawings and moving images such as video within the context of tourism research The book focuses on key issues important for students researchers and academics actively doing visual tourism research or those who are contemplating using these methods These range from the questions surrounding philosophical approaches inter disciplinary location range and choice of methods implementation and data analysis techniques to provide an essential guide to using visual methods in tourism research While recognising that visual methods are predominantly employed within qualitative research this text will discuss various philosophical approaches and academic disciplines indicating how these influence a particular choice of visual method mode of implementation and type of analysis In this regard this book will incorporate perspectives from a range of disciplines including anthropology geography and sociology demonstrating how these might be applied within the context of studies in tourism The discussions surrounding these key issues are supplemented with international case studies from existing research to show how these methods are used in practice In addition to this practical tip boxes are included to help avoid some of the pitfalls associated with visual research This book is an essential guide for tourism students academics and researchers embarking on research using visual methodology in this field Handbook of Research Methods for Tourism and Hospitality Management Robin Nunkoo,2018-07-27 As research in tourism and hospitality reaches maturity a growing number of methodological approaches are being utilized and in addition this knowledge is dispersed across a wide range of journals Consequently there is a broad and multidisciplinary community of tourism and hospitality researchers whom at present need to look widely for support on methods In this volume researchers fulfil a pressing need by clearly presenting methodological issues within tourism and hospitality research alongside particular methods and share their experiences of what works what does not work and where challenges and innovations lie Stories of Practice: Tourism Policy and Planning Dianne Dredge,John Jenkins,2016-04-01 Analyses of contemporary tourism planning and policymaking practice at local to global scales is lacking and there is an urgent need for research that informs theory and practice Illustrated with a set of cohesive theoretically informed international case studies constructed through storytelling this volume expands readers knowledge about how tourism planning and policymaking takes place Challenging traditional notions of tourism planning and policy processes this book also provides critical insights into how theoretical concepts and frameworks are applied in tourism planning and policy making practice at different spatial scales The book engages readers in the intellectual political moral and ethical issues that often surround tourism policymaking and planning highlighting the great value of reflective learning grounded in the social sciences and revealing the complexity of tourism planning and policy

The Tourism and Leisure Experience Michael Morgan,Peter Lugosi,J. R. Brent Ritchie,2010 People do not buy products or even services they purchase the total experience that the product or service provides This book brings together established and emerging international scholars to provide systematic reviews and illustrative cases drawn from tourism leisure hospitality sport and event contexts The book provides a useful framework for focusing the goals and associated methodologies of future research efforts and for implementing the results of these efforts Case Based Research in Tourism, Travel, Hospitality and Events Marianna Sigala,Anastasia Yeark,Rajka Presbury,Marcela Fang,Karen A. Smith,2022-01-05 This book consolidates international contemporary and topical case study based research in tourism travel hospitality and events Case studies can make learning more attractive and interesting as well as enable students to understand the theory better and develop their analytical and problem solving skills Using industry as an open living lab case study based research infuses scholars into real world industry challenges and inspires them to theorise and advance our knowledge frontiers The book includes international case studies that can help tourism scholars build and advance new theories and enrich their educational practices Case studies are accompanied with a teaching note guiding scholars to integrate case studies into instruction Dr Kirsten Holmes Chair Council for Australasian Tourism and Hospitality Education

CAUTHE There is a vital need for contemporary and well structured case studies for use in tourism teaching By including case studies from Australasia and key destination regions in Asia Europe and the Caribbean the book is helpful for tertiary teachers globally Professor Xander Lub President EuroCHRIE The book inspires educators and students The cases provide context to students learning and demonstrate the richness and variation of the industry The book also clearly demonstrates how research can inform our teaching Professor Brian King Chair THE ICE Assessment Panel The book includes cases under five themes experiences operations technologies strategy and marketing and destinations The book provides subject lecturers with a structure to guide students of applying theory into practice Dr Paul Whitelaw Academic Director Southern Cross University This book marks a significant contribution to hospitality tourism and events pedagogy at undergraduate and postgraduate level At a time when the industry is demanding that our graduates have a strong grasp of real world issues the case study approach provides an accessible meaningful and relatable means by which students can engage in real world issues

Fieldwork in Tourism Michael C. Hall, 2010-10-04 The inherent mobility of tourists and consequent relative ephemerality of contact between the visitor and the visited tourism phenomenon have specific characteristics that challenge the usual fieldwork practices of the social and physical sciences Such conditions create specific concerns for the tourism researcher in terms of their positionality relationality accessibility ethics reflexivity and methodological appropriateness Fieldwork in Tourism is the first book to focus on this extremely significant component of contemporary tourist research and provides hands on approaches to conducting tourism fieldwork in a range of settings exploring the methodological considerations and offering strategies to mitigate these The book also discusses how fieldwork affects researchers personally and what happens to field relationships Divided into five sections each with an introduction and a guide to further reading the chapters cover the context of fieldwork research relationships politics and power the position of the researcher in the field research methods and processes including virtual fieldwork and the relationships between being a tourist and doing fieldwork The concluding chapter suggests that the link between tourism and fieldwork perhaps offers greater insights into understanding creative fieldwork than may be imagined This book incorporates a rich and diverse set of fieldwork experiences insights and reflections on conducting fieldwork in different settings the problems that emerge the solutions that were developed and the realities of being in the field Fieldwork in Tourism is an essential guide for Tourism higher level students academics and researchers embarking on research in this field

Cultural Due Diligence in Hospitality Ventures Nicole Häusler, 2017-04-05 This book introduces readers to a powerful method for cross cultural due diligence in mergers and organizational collaborations It employs the context of joint ventures between local communities and companies in the domain of hospitality in emerging tourism destinations The book first analyzes the impact of cultural diversity in mergers between local communities and the private sector revealing the characteristics and functions of culture and paying specific attention to the roles of organizational and community cultures in hospitality In two subsequent methodological chapters the book presents a theoretical framework for cultural due diligence and identifies the principal actors technical aspects and core principles On the basis of a separate case study from northern Thailand the book provides an example of cultural context analysis and presents the findings and results In a concluding chapter the book presents an outlook on further research and development in this field The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal, Mike Robinson, 2009-06-18 The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies The Critical Turn in Tourism Studies Irena Ateljevic, Nigel Morgan, Annette Pritchard, 2013-06-17 This volume is designed to enable its reader to think through vital concepts and theories relating to tourism and hospitality management stimulate critical thinking and use multidisciplinary perspectives The book is organized around three key ways of producing social change in and through tourism critical thinking critical education and critical action Cultural Tourism Research Methods Greg Richards, Wil Munsters, 2010 Cultural tourism includes experiencing local culture traditions and lifestyle participation in arts related activities and visits to museums monuments and heritage sites This book reviews a wide range of qualitative and quantitative research methods applied to the field It is suitable for students and researchers in tourism and leisure Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie, Peter Burns, Catherine Palmer, 2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers Tourism Research in Malaysia: What, Which Way and So What? (UUM Press) Kadir Din, Jabil Mapjabil, 2010-01-01 This collection offers a sample of contemporary works on tourism and its impact on the Malaysian environment written by academics from a variety of perspectives Given the growing body of literature on different aspects of the industry the coverage is by no means representative let alone exhaustive of the current discourse Nonetheless the nineteen chapters cover a range of interests and concerns which have emerged as a consequence of spectacular growth in tourist arrival which currently places Malaysia as one of the most popular destinations in Asia Recent forecast indicates that the growth trends will continue for at least another decade before the country as a destination approaches maturity This volume would be a useful reference for students academic and other researchers who are looking for detailed information to enable them to analyse the impacts and implications of tourism development on the host society ECOTOURISM AND RURAL COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT (Penerbit UMK) Velan Kunjuran, Roslizawati Che Aziz, Nur Zehan Abu Bakar, 2021-09-14 This book introduces a wide range of topics related to ecotourism rural tourism and rural community development within Malaysia and outside of Malaysia Among the topics include research paradigm in ecotourism research ecotourism impacts to the local community development ecotourism challenges and its solutions tourist satisfaction towards ecotourism services and others The discussed topics in this book have been theoretically and empirically validated by the authors and provide a meaningful discussion within the ecotourism and rural community development areas This book is timely to recognise ecotourism contributions towards rural community development issues within the selected countries done by the authors This book is suitable for college and university students academicians government and private agencies policy makers NGOs and the general public who are interested in ecotourism and rural community development issues in developed and developing countries Moreover this book may be considered as a reference to those invested in ecotourism ventures as well as studies related to the ecotourism and rural community development
