Qualitative Studies In Education Cardiff Papers In Qualitative Research:

Qualitative Studies in Education (1995) Jane Salisbury, Sara Delamont, 2018-02-06 Published in 1995 this book comprises a group of original studies in education. It includes detailed empirically based accounts of a variety of educational settings which are under represented in the sociological literature for instance special schools psychiatric adolescent units further education colleges and government policy settings. Studies of other neglected issues include teachers' understandings of subject, the promotion of cross curricular themes and pupils' acquisition of knowledge about menstruation. Ethnographic fieldwork in Maltese classrooms and a study of Asian pupils in a Welsh school provide an international dimension to the volume. Most contributions draw on ethnographic approaches and by using close observation and/or in depth interviews they capture the internal workings of a classroom institution or culture.

Teaching Qualitative Research Rosalind E. Hurworth, 2008-01-01 Over the past two decades there has been a plethora of books for students about how to tackle Qualitative Research (QR) but absolutely nothing on how to teach it. This book attempts to redress the imbalance by presenting a history of what is known about QR teaching as well as to bring alive current QR teaching and learning through a set of Australian and British case studies. Courses visited were located within a variety of disciplines including Education, Sociology, Anthropology, Nursing, Psychology, Communications and Evaluation. They were taught by both experienced and inexperienced lecturers, were either presented alone or in pairs, took place in a range of institutions, lasted from seven weeks to a year and involved from 15 to over 100 students. It emerged however that no matter what the context several common issues were raised such as: Should you teach theory, practice or both? How do you determine a curriculum for a QR course? What is the best way to manage student projects? How should students of QR be assessed? In what ways can the constraints of University structures be confronted and how can lecturer deficiencies in training and experience be overcome? To answer such questions Professor Hurworth draws deftly from personal observations and rich conversations with both lecturers and students from all the courses described. As a result many practical ideas for moving the teaching and learning of QR forward are suggested.

Blue Ribbon Papers Norman K. Denzin, Lonnie Athens, 2012-05-07 Part of the Blue Ribbon Papers Series, this title presents the autobiographies of scholars who have made significant contributions to the symbolic interactionist approach over the 20th and 21st centuries.

Routledge Library Editions: Higher Education Various, 2021-03-29 The volumes in this set, originally published between 1964 and 2002, draw together research by leading academics in the area of higher education and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues. The volume examines the concepts of learning, teaching, student experience and administration in relation to the higher education through the areas of business, sociology, education reforms, government educational policy, business and religion, whilst also exploring the general principles and practices of higher education in various countries. This set will be of particular interest to students and practitioners of education, politics and sociology.

Technology and the Politics of University Reform E. Hamilton, 2016-04-08 Do new technologies mean the end of the university as we know it Or can they be shaped in a way that balances innovation and tradition This volume explores these questions through a critical history of online education Visual, Narrative and Creative Research Methods Dawn Mannay,2015-10-23 Visual research methods are quickly becoming key topics of interest and are now widely recognised as having the potential to evoke empathic understanding of the ways in which other people experience their worlds Visual Narrative and Creative Research Methods examines the practices and value of these visual approaches as a qualitative tool in the field of social science and related disciplines This book is concerned with the process of applying visual methods as a tool of inquiry from design to production to analysis and dissemination Drawing on research projects which reflect real world situations you will be methodically guided through the research process in detail enabling you to examine and understand the practices and value of visual narrative and creative approaches as effective qualitative tools Key topics include techniques of data production including collage mapping drawing and photographs the practicalities of application the positioning of the researcher interpretation of visual data images and narratives in public spaces evaluative analysis of creative approaches Visual Narrative and Creative Research Methods will be an invaluable companion for researchers postgraduate students and other academics with an interest in visual and creative methods and qualitative research

Bologna in European Research-intensive Universities Jan Elen,An Verburgh,2008 Handbook of Sensitive Research in the Social Sciences Pranee Liamputtong,2025-03-12 Conducting sensitive research in the social sciences requires meticulous attention to ethical considerations methodological rigour and emotional intelligence In this comprehensive Handbook Pranee Liamputtong brings together a diverse array of expert contributing authors to reflect on best practice and to discuss the growing attention to this type of research in the social sciences Microcomputing and Qualitative Data Analysis Anna

Weaver,Paul Atkinson,1994 Based on the recognition that qualitative research in the social sciences cannot be unitary this work reviews a number of strategies for the analysis of qualitative data using computers It sees microcomputing as offering a range of opportunities for the future of qualitative research and examines coding segments lexical searching and coding and theory building Reframing Human Endeavors Bagoes Wiryomartono,2023-04-21 This ambitious text is a monograph about human experiences concerning the potentialities capacities and features of humankind from the wholeness of the collective mind body spirit The purpose in reframing human endeavors is for enhanced alignment for livability and sustainability This book departs from the concept and practice of design and technology and argues that most crises that endanger and destruct our ecological livability and sustainability come from our way of thinking and doing with design and technology based on the necessity for control It is the control for overcoming the fear of scarcity starvation and the unknown This book is rather an attempt to find alternate way of decision making thru holistic methods It appeals to researchers working in design sustainability architecture and urban studies Interactionism Paul Atkinson,William

Housley,2003-03-27 Atkinson and Housley have produced a book that is a very competent interesting and useful addition to other work in the field Its distinctive contribution for me lies in the exploration of the relationship between and developments within interactionist sociologies Sociology What is symbolic interactionism This refreshing and authoritative book provides readers with A guide to the essential thinking research and concepts in interactionism A demonstration of the use of the interactionist approach An explanation of why the interactionist influence has not been fully acknowledged in Britain The authors argue that few sociologists in Britain have identified themselves with symbolic interactionism even though many have engaged with interactionist ideas in their research and methodological work We are all interactionists now in the sense that many of the key ideas of interactionism have become part of the mainstream of sociological thought Currently fashionable approaches to sociology display a kind of collective amnesia A good deal of today s ideas that are presented as novel or innovative only appear so because earlier contributions interactionism among them are not explicitly acknowledged

The University Challenge (2004) Pugsley Lesley, 2018-02-19 Published in 2004 this book discusses whether the rhetoric of the market in higher education is matched by the realities of choice In the first comprehensive study of higher education markets and sixth form choice Lesley Pugsley argues that the annual burst of media fuelled panic about university entrance leads to a misinformed rhetoric about the purpose and value of higher education This is a benchmark study based on the 1997 cohort of students who were last to enter higher education under the Robbins 1963 banner of free education Tracking a group of students throughout their sixth form careers Pugsley provides a balanced account of the tensions experiences by the students their parents and their teachers in an increasingly market orientated higher education society This book was originally published as part of the Cardiff Papers in Qualitative Research series edited by Paul Atkinson Sara Delamont and Amanda Coffey The series publishes original sociological research that reflects the tradition of qualitative and ethnographic inquiry developed at Cardiff The series includes monographs reporting on empirical research edited collections focussing on particular themes and texts discussing methodological developments and issues

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003

Realizing Qualitative Research into Higher Education Craig Prichard,Paul Trowler,2018-10-10 Originally published in 2003 Realizing Qualitative Research into Higher Education looks at how qualitative research in broad terms confronts the question of the researcher s involvement in the production of knowledge However the method adopted even in highly positivist qualitative work has a history that bears on the research This volume provides examples of engaging research work outlining the key research process and examining the links between this and the final report
