External Higher Education Quality Assurance in China Liu Shuiyun, 2019-10-23 Since the end of the 1990s the Chinese higher education system has seen a dramatic expansion of enrolment China currently has the largest higher education system in the world however the rapid growth resulted in concerns being raised about the quality of the system In response an array of external quality assessment schemes of higher education has been established based on suggested policy designs and reforms The establishment of an effective quality assurance mechanism is a major challenge for universities around the world therefore what experience and lessons can be learned from the Chinese practice This book analyses the external quality assurance system of higher education in China It brings together scholarship on this topic by renowned Chinese experts reporting and discussing recent policy developments and research It presents and analyses various quality evaluation schemes covering undergraduate postgraduate and vocational levels of higher education The theoretical roots and value orientation of Chinese higher education quality assurance are also reflected on This volume was originally published as a special issue of Chinese Education and Society

Quality Assurance in Higher Education Stamelos Georgios, K.M. Joshi, Saeed Paivandi, 2017-01-30 The significant growth of number of students enrolled in tertiary education institutions in the recent past decades has caused an unprecedented expansion of higher education systems The rapid and constant social economic and technological mutations and international competition make the importance of qualitatively well educated citizenry and labor forces very decisive Globalization has developed a powerful impact on the development of higher education and imposes new challenges for the organization standards financing regulations Systems of higher education tend to detach from the national models and adopt a more global orientation The implementation of quality assurance is one of the recent and most decisive transformations of higher education Different higher education systems are trying to develop assessment tools internal and external to improve the quality of teaching research and extension activities and these are either based on experiences of selected countries or are extensively country specific The quality assurance procedures that were often dependent on national directorial traditions have gradually tended to converge and led to a setup of common tools and standards Countries under a centralized system tend to impose a uniform and general model while decentralized systems give greater freedom to universities to set up their own quality International rankings of universities also contribute to impose a set of transnational standards and values which is also being considered as indicative by the stakeholders The present book tries to look at the quality assurance mechanism international rankings and its impact in both absolute and comparative fashion in context of 11 countries from different parts of the world

Vietnamese quality assurance      Quality Assurance in Higher Education in Eastern and Southern Africa Peter Neema-Abooki, 2021-08-23 This book examines the critical aspect of quality assurance maintenance of competitive standards in African higher education. It explores both the micro and macro levels of continental African higher education regulatory authorities and analyses different institutional regional and national practices for moving towards continental quality assurance approaches. Contributed to by scholars across Eastern and Southern Africa, the book considers conceptual, practical, epistemological and policy dimensions of quality and quality assurance especially in relation to higher education in Africa. It therefore draws on research and local expertise to open up debate about how to assure and enhance the quality of higher education, providing a comprehensive review of eight countries and considers societal challenges. It aims to satisfy the need of more thoughtful and critical works on African education as produced by African educators. The uniqueness of this book lies in integrating both the theoretical and practical dimensions of quality to devise appropriate strategies for ensuring quality and standards in higher education in continental Africa and beyond. This authoritative book advocates for a timely discussion around the provision of good quality higher education and research in African universities and will be of great interest to academics, policy makers, researchers and post graduate students in the fields of higher education, comparative education and African studies.

Quality Assurance for Higher Education Institutions in Malawi Kingstone Ngwira, 2016-01-08 This book is about quality assurance for higher education institutions in Malawi and is a must read book for quality assurance professionals and experts, higher education institution managers and leaders, quality assurance review team for national council for higher education and nonquality assurance professionals who want to better understand the quality assurance in higher education institutions. The author is convinced that the aforementioned targets will have much to gain through this unique book which is being brought out as a tool kit on quality assurance in higher education. The book was developed from a conviction that quality assurance in higher education institutions is the bedrock heart and soul of higher education provision and is designed to promote a culture of quality in higher education institutions. In developing this book, a number of literature sources were consulted from other higher education institutions in Africa and in the European higher education area in general and the Malawi's National Council for Higher Education NCHE's Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in Malawi's higher education institutions in particular.

Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence in Higher Education Ahmed Odeh Al Jaber, 2022-09-01 Quality Assurance is not a new concept in the education sector in general and higher education in particular, though it is becoming increasingly more relevant and important. Higher education helps to improve an individual's quality of life by enabling them to inflate their knowledge and expertise to grasp abstract concepts and theories and to raise their awareness of the world and their community and as such the assurance of quality is becoming more pivotal in the whole education process. There is no simple definition of the concept of quality in education though numerous models and theories have been devised. Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence of Higher Education is a new episode of the Quality Assurance perception in higher education which identifies the quality culture and orientation from the beginning integrating crucial factors to build a pyramid of higher education excellence The book compares concepts from the main theories of Quality Assurance management and control when they are applied to educational systems in higher education The book also presents a new model of excellence in higher education Excellence is an architecture of building blocks that comes with process performance effectiveness harmony and collaboration which should be incorporated in a quality oriented concept of a sustainable excellence of higher education The model integrates four main facets the Educational System Quality Assurance Managing and Control Strategic Planning and Globalization Also presented are international best practices in quality assurance in higher education from Japan and Finland The SAGE Handbook of International Higher Education Darla K.
