Terrains of Imagination in Contemporary Finnish Literature Sarianna Kankkunen,2024-12-24 This study examines experienced space in Maarit Verronen s works of prose fiction The study aligns itself with the contemporary approach often referred to as spatial literary studies a movement connected to the spatial turn within the humanities Theoretically the study draws on multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen s oeuvre the selected material spans the author s early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen s early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen s fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions By analyzing Verronen s dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses Verronen s narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen s novels foregrounds the open connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen s works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature's emphasis on space spatiality and environmental issues. Moreover, the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations. As the study contextualizes Verronen's works within Nordic and European literatures, it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions.

Re-Writing Jesus: Christ in 20th-Century Fiction and Film Graham Holderness, 2014-11-20. At the heart of Christian theology lies a paradox unintelligible to other religions and to secular humanism: that in the person of Jesus, God became man and suffered on the cross to effect humanity's salvation. In his dual nature as mortal and divinity and unlike the impassable God of other monotheisms, Christ thus became accessible to artistic representation. Hence the figure of Jesus has haunted and compelled the imagination of artists and writers for 2 000 years. This was never more so than in the 20th Century in a supposedly secular age when the Jesus of popular fiction and film became perhaps more familiar than the Christ of the New Testament. In Re-Writing Jesus: Christ in 20th Century Fiction and Film, Graham Holderness explores how writers and film makers have sought to recreate Christ in work as diverse as Anthony Burgess's Man of Nazareth and Jim Crace's Quarantine to Martin Scorsese's The Last Temptation of Christ and Mel Gibson's Passion of the Christ. These works are set within a longer and broader history of Jesus novels and Jesus films, a lineage traced back to Ernest Renan and George Moore and explored both for their reflections of contemporary Christological debates and their positive contributions to Christian theology. In its final chapter, the book draws on the insights of this tradition of Christological representation to creatively construct a new life of Christ, an original work of theological fiction that both subsumes the history of the form and offers a startlingly new perspective on the biography of Christ.

The Quarantine Review, Issue 9 Sheeza Sarfraz, J.J. Dupuis, 2021-08-10. The ninth incisive issue of a digital literary journal born out of self-isolation. Literary Representations of Pandemics, Epidemics and Pestilence Nishi Pulugurtha, 2022-12-23. Disease, pestilence and contagion have been an integral component of human lives and stories. This book explores the articulations and representations of the vulnerability of life or the trauma of death in literature about epidemics both from India and around the world. This book critically engages with stories and narratives that have dealt with pandemics or epidemics in the past and in contemporary times to see how these texts present human life coming to terms with upheaval, fear and uncertainty. Set in various places and times, the literature examined in this book explores the themes of human suffering and resilience, inequality, corruption, the ruin of civilizations and the rituals of grief and remembrance. The chapters in this volume cover a wide spatio-temporal trajectory, analysing the writings of Fakir Mohan Senapati and Suryakant Tripathi 'Nirala', Jack London, Albert Camus, Margaret Atwood, Sarat Chandra Pandita, Ramabai and Christina Sweeney Baird, among others. It gives readers a glimpse into both grounded and fantastical realities where disease and death clash with human psychology and where philosophy politics and social values are critiqued and problematized This book will be of interest to students of English literature social science gender studies cultural studies psychology society politics and philosophy General readers too will find this exciting as it covers authors from across the world      Consciousness and Science Fiction Damien Broderick, 2018-11-30 Science fiction explores the wonderful baffling and wildly entertaining aspects of a universe unimaginably old and vast and with a future even more immense It reaches into that endless cosmos with the tools of rational investigation and storytelling At the core of both science and science fiction is the engaged human mind a consciousness that sees and feels and thinks and loves But what is this mind this aware and self aware consciousness that seems unlike anything else we experience What makes consciousness the Hard Problem of philosophy still unsolved after millennia of probing This book looks into the heart of this mystery at the science and philosophy of consciousness and at many inspiring fictional examples and finds strange challenging answers The book s content and entertaining style will appeal equally to science fiction enthusiasts and scholars including cognitive and neuroscientists as well as philosophers of mind It is a refreshing romp through the science and science fiction of consciousness
