Quarrel With The Foe:

Beyond the Ancient Quarrel Patrick Hayes, Jan Wilm, 2017 In Plato's Republic Socrates spoke of an ancient quarrel between literature and philosophy which he offered to resolve once and for all by banning the poets from his ideal city Few philosophers have taken Socrates at his word and out of the ancient quarrel there has emerged a long tradition that has sought to value literature chiefly as a useful supplement to philosophical reasoning The fiction of J M Coetzee makes a striking challenge to this tradition While his writing has frequently engaged philosophical subjects in explicit ways it has done so with an emphasis on the dissonance between literary expression and philosophical reasoning And while Coetzee has often overtly engaged with academic literary theory his fiction has done so in a way that has tended to disorient rather than affirm those same theories wrong footing the normal processes of literary interpretation This volume brings together philosophers and literary theorists to reflect upon the challenge Coetzee has made to their respective disciplines and to the disciplinary distinctions at stake in the ancient quarrel The essays use his fiction to explore questions about the boundaries between literature philosophy and literary criticism the relationship between literature theology and post secularism the particular ways in which literature engages reality how literature interacts with the philosophies of language action subjectivity and ethics and the institutions that govern the distinctions between literature and philosophy It will be of importance not only to readers of Coetzee but to anyone interested in the ancient quarrel itself Proceedings of the ... National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. National encampment, 1936 Some early issues include the Proceedings of the annual encampment of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States New Orleans, Louisiana; September 15 to 20, 1935, 1936 Davis' Anthology of Newspaper Verse Franklyn Pierre Davis, Mrs. Athie Sale Davis, 1929 The Experiment of Faith Charles Fiske, 1918 The Great Class War 1914-1918 Jacques R. Pauwels, 2016-04-06 Historian Jacques Pauwels applies a critical revisionist lens to the First World War offering readers a fresh interpretation that challenges mainstream thinking As Pauwels sees it war offered benefits to everyone across class and national borders For European statesmen a large scale war could give their countries new colonial territories important to growing capitalist economies For the wealthy and ruling classes war served as an antidote to social revolution encouraging workers to exchange socialism's focus on international solidarity for nationalism's intense militarism And for the working classes themselves war provided an outlet for years of systemic militarization quite simply they were hardwired to pick up arms and to do so eagerly To Pauwels the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in June 1914 traditionally upheld by historians as the spark that lit the powder keg was not a sufficient cause for war but rather a pretext seized upon by European powers to unleash the kind of war they had desired But what Europe's elite did not expect or predict was some of the war's outcomes social revolution and Communist Party rule in Russia plus a wave of political and social democratic reforms in Western Europe that would have far reaching consequences Reflecting his broad research in the voluminous recent literature about the First World War by historians in the leading countries involved in the conflict Jacques Pauwels has produced an account that challenges readers to rethink their understanding of this key event of twentieth century world history

A Cracker Gal Finds Religion Mary Louise DeWolf, 2011-07-27 If you are interested in religion or in enriching your own religion or in searching for a religion that suits you you will enjoy this book It is the story of the authors religious journey in stories poems and sermons Early in life her father took her brother the oldest sibling to one church and she and her two older sisters went with their mother to another church But she recalls that her first significant religious experience happened at home when she was alone The authors spiritual growth began in this religiously divided family She found her way slowly and questioning to a different religion and to her own theology The fruits of her journey are basically what the book is about poems and sermons The poems chronicle the changes that occur in her life through this questioning the meaning of life relationships love nature the seasons and holidays Writing and delivering sermons involve the head and the heart knowledge and intuition sensitivity and frankness These sermons demonstrate the authors commitment to a religion that fits her science not a separation between the two The sermons are about how to live in this world with all of its complexities while understanding that not only do religions differ widely but so do individual theologies convictions and personalities The goal of the sermons is to help us all make this world a better place to live by respecting the worth and dignity of every person with justice equity and compassion engaging in an ongoing search for truth and meaning exercising our conscience and the democratic process and acknowledging the interdependent web of all existence
