Library Developments , 1995 Engaging Readers Dana A. Robertson, Evelyn Ford-Connors, Susan Dougherty, 2017-03-17 An important goal of teachers is to get all students especially those in the upper elementary and middle grades who struggle with academic work engaged in reading This book examines current research on instructional principles and actions related to engaged reading It shows how teachers can translate this research into evidence based actions that promote productive instructional contexts and focus students purposeful use of literacy in acquiring knowledge The authors integrate descriptions of principles and actions with concrete examples of classroom instruction and thematic teaching across disciplinary contexts and demonstrate how teachers might mediate students reading of complex texts The book provides readers with a vivid picture of the complexities of teaching reading in the upper elementary and middle grades In particular the book blends individual principles and practices into a holistic approach to creating productive and engaged learning environments for all upper elementary and middle grade learners Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Strategic Planning for Public Relations Ronald D. Smith, 2004-09-15 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Improving Literacy in the Primary School R. P. Chamberlin, G. S. Haynes, E. C. Wragg, Prof E C Wragg, 2005-07-28 One of the most important challenges teachers face is making sure children can read It is an absolutely crucial skill and current educational policy is giving it a very high priority Based on one of the largest studies ever undertaken of what primary schools do to improve literacy this book reports what Professor Ted Wragg and his research team found The importance placed on literacy has never been greater When children learn to read they are laying the foundations for their entire educational future Effective teachers can make a huge difference as a poor start can hinder children throughout their schooling and beyond By looking at what actually goes on in classrooms this volume provides an invaluable insight into what happens to children and how their reading progresses It shows how particular teachers manage the improvement of their pupils reading levels and also follows individual pupils through a school year This is a very readable account of a fascinating and crucial area of research that is highly topical Every class teacher should read it Handbook of Research on Schools, Schooling and Human Development Judith L. Meece, Jacquelynne S. Eccles, 2010-06-10 Children spend more time in school than in any social institution outside the home And schools probably exert more influence on children's development and life chances than any environment beyond the home and neighbourhood The purpose of this book is to document some important ways schools influence children's development and to describe various models and methods for studying schooling effects Key features include Comprehensive Coverage this is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of what is known about schools as a context for human development Topical coverage ranges from theoretical foundations to investigative methodologies and from classroom level influences such as teacher student relations to broader influences such as school organization and educational policies Cross Disciplinary this volume brings together the divergent perspectives methods and findings of scholars from a variety of disciplines among them educational psychology developmental psychology school psychology social psychology psychiatry sociology and educational policy Chapter Structure to ensure continuity chapter authors describe 1 how schooling influences are conceptualized 2 identify their theoretical and methodological approaches 3 discuss the strengths and weaknesses of existing research and 4 highlight implications for future research practice and policy Methodologies chapters included in the text feature various methodologies including longitudinal studies hierarchical linear models experimental and quasi experimental designs and mixed methods Improving Reading and Literacy in Grades 1-5 Edward P. St. John, Siri Ann Loescher, Jeffrey S.
