Jet ,1952-11-13 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Children of the City David Nasaw,2012-09-18 The turn of the twentieth century was a time of explosive growth for American cities a time of nascent hopes and apparently limitless possibilities In Children of the City David Nasaw re creates this period in our social history from the vantage point of the children who grew up then Drawing on hundreds of memoirs autobiographies oral histories and unpublished and until now unexamined primary source materials from cities across the country he provides us with a warm and eloquent portrait of these children their families their daily lives their fears and their dreams Illustrated with 68 photographs from the period many never before published Children of the City offers a vibrant portrait of a time when our cities and our grandparents were young The African American Voice in U.S. Foreign Policy Since World War II Michael L. Krenn,2019-08-08 Following World War II America was witness to two great struggles The first was on the international front and involved the fight for freedom around the globe as millions of people in Asia and Africa rose up to throw off their European colonial masters In the decades following 1945 dozens of new nations joined the ranks of independent countries Following the Civil War the African American voice in U S foreign affairs continued to grow In the late nineteenth century a few African Americans such as Frederick Douglass even served as U S diplomats to the black republics of Liberia and Haiti When America began its overseas thrust during the 1890s African American opinion was divided

Blacks at Harvard Werner Sollors,Caldwell Titcomb,Thomas A. Underwood,1993-03 The history of blacks at Harvard mirrors for better or for worse the history of blacks in the United States Harvard too has been indelibly scarred by slavery exclusion segregation and other forms of racist oppression At the same time the nation s oldest university has also at various times stimulated supported or allowed itself to be influenced by the various reform movements that have dramatically changed the nature of race relations across the nation The story of blacks at Harvard is thus inspiring but painful instructive but ambiguous a paradoxical episode in the most vexing controversy of American life the race question The first and only book on its subject Blacks at Harvard is distinguished by the rich variety of its sources Included in this documentary history are scholarly overviews poems short stories speeches well known memoirs by the famous previously unpublished memoirs by the lesser known newspaper accounts letters official papers of the university and transcripts of debates Among Harvard s black alumni and alumnae are such illustrious figures as W E B Du Bois Monroe Trotter and Alain Locke Countee Cullen and Sterling Brown both received graduate degrees The editors have collected here writings as diverse as those of Booker T Washington William Hastie Malcolm X and Muriel Snowden to convey the complex ways in which Harvard has affected the thinking of African Americans and the ways in turn in which African Americans have influenced the traditions of Harvard and Radcliffe Notable among the contributors are significant figures in African American letters Phyllis Wheatley William Melvin Kelley Marita Bonner James Alan McPherson and Andrea Lee Equally prominent in the book are some of the nation's leading historians Carter Woodson Rayford Logan John Hope Franklin and Nathan I Huggins A vital sourcebook Blacks at Harvard is certain to nourish scholarly inquiry into the social and intellectual history of African Americans at elite national institutions and serves as a telling metaphor of this nation's past Masterplots II. NFB Kids Brian J. Low,2006-01-01 Imagine a society that exists solely in cinema this book explores exactly that Using a half century of films from the archival collection of the National Film Board NFB Kids Portrayals of Children by the National Film Board of Canada 1939 1989 overcomes a long standing impasse about what films may be credibly said to document Here they document not reality but social images preserved over time the NFB Society an evolving cinematic representation of Canadian families schools and communities During the postwar era this society in cinema underwent a profound change in its child rearing and schooling philosophies embracing modern notions based upon principles espoused by the American mental hygiene movement Soon after the introduction of these psychological principles into NFB homes in 1946 and schools in 1956 there was a subtle transformation in adult child relations which progressively over time narrowed the gulf of power between generations and diminished the socializing roles of the NFB parents and teachers NFB Kids is a pioneering study within a new field of academic research cinema ethnography It adds to the growing body of knowledge about the function and the considerable impact of psychiatry and psychology in the post war social reconstruction of Canadian society and social history It will be of interest to academics over a broad spectrum of disciplines and to anyone thinking about the advancing arbitrary power of the cinematic state Jet ,1952-01-03 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Congressional Record United States. Congress,1971 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Black Americans in the Roosevelt Era John B. Voices of Multicultural America Deborah Gillan Straub,1996 Contains primary source material The Mirage of Dignity on the Highways of Human 'Progress' Lukman Harees,2012-01-16 The Modern Man is hypocritically boasting of unprecedented material progress in a world where inter alia millions daily go to bed hungry die or get killed through unwanted wars and preventable causes live in inhumane conditions vulnerable being exploited with ever widening inequality and might still ruling over right in international relations even in the post UDHR era an indictment on the collective conscience of mankind Besides the flame of materialism has been devouring time tested moral values causing chaos within the basic unit in society the family and relegating Man and his dignity to the level of animals and even manipulating his identity Therefore questions arise Is Moral law fading are political economic systems and institutions like UN failing in realizing the lofty goal of affording due dignity basic rights and social justice humanity deserves Can the bystanders be mere onlookers anymore This book seeks to dispassionately survey the yawning gap between the rhetoric and the ground reality in bringing about dignity and social justice for humanity from bystanders perspective in the light of these questions and underlines the imperative need for moral progress to go hand in hand to make Man assume his due role as the trustee on earth It also exhorts bystanders to close ranks as human dignity champions rights defenders identity protectors against onslaughts from power hungry politicians mighty powers and vested interests This is the need of the times and what our future progeny demands Department of State Wireless Bulletin ,1950-10
