Methodology, Ideology and Pedagogy of African Art Moyo Okediji, 2024-02-14 This edited volume including contributions from scholars with different areas of specialization investigates a broad range of methodologies ideologies and pedagogies focusing on the study of the art of Africa using theoretical reflections and applications from primitivism to metamodernism Chapters break the externally imposed boundaries of Africa related works beyond the conventional fragments of traditional contemporary and diaspora The contributions are significantly broad in their methodologies ideologies and pedagogical coverage yet they all address various aspects of African artistic creativity demonstrating the possibilities for analytical experiments that art history presents to scholars of the discipline today The w character of each approach is unique nevertheless each is useful toward a fuller understanding of African art studies as an independent aspect of art historical research that is a branch or bud of the larger family of art history The volume respects highlights and celebrates the distinctiveness of each methodical approach recognizing its contribution to the overall character or w of African art studies The book will be of interest to students in undergraduate or graduate intermediate or advanced courses as well as scholars in art history and African studies

Embodying Relation Allison Moore, 2020-06-22 In Embodying Relation Allison Moore examines the tensions between the local and the global in the art photography movement in Bamako Mali which blossomed in the 1990s after Malian photographers Seydou Ke ta and Malick Sidib became internationally famous and the Bamako Photography Biennale was founded Moore traces the trajectory of Malian photography from the 1880s when photography first arrived as an apparatus of French colonialism to the first African studio practitioners of the 1930s and the establishment in 1994 of the Bamako Biennale Africa s most important continent wide photographic exhibition In her detailed discussion of Bamakois artistic aesthetics and institutions Moore examines the post fame careers of Ke ta and Sidib the biennale s structure the rise of women photographers cultural preservation through photography and how Mali's shift to democracy in the early 1990s enabled Bamako's art scene to flourish Moore shows how Malian photographers focus on cultural exchange affective connections with different publics and merging of traditional cultural precepts with modern notions of art embody Caribbean philosopher and poet Édouard Glissant's notion of relation in ways that spark new artistic forms practices and communities      Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance Kene Igweonu, 2024-06-10 The Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance brings together the very latest international research on the performing arts across the continent and the diaspora into one expansive and wide ranging collection The book offers readers a compelling journey through the different ideas people and practices that have shaped African theatre and performance from pre colonial and colonial times right through to the 20th and early 21st centuries Resolutely Pan African and inter national in its coverage the book draws on the expertise of a wide range of Africanist scholars and also showcases the voices of performers and theatre practitioners working on the cutting edge of African theatre and performance practice Contributors aim to answer some of the big questions about the content nature form and context processes practice of theatre whilst also painting a pluralistic and complex picture of the diversity of cultural political and artistic exigencies across the continent Covering a broad range of themes including postcolonialism transnationalism interculturalism Afropolitanism development and the diaspora the handbook concludes by projecting possible future directions for African theatre and performance as we continue to advance into the 21st century and beyond This ground breaking new handbook will be essential reading for students and researchers studying theatre and performance practices across Africa and the diaspora      Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development Polly Stupples, Katerina Teaiwa, 2016-10-26 Visual artists craftspeople musicians and performers have been supported by the development community for at least twenty years yet there has been little grounded and critical research into the practices and politics of that support This new Routledge book remedies that omission and brings together varied perspectives from artists policy makers and researchers working in the Pacific Africa Latin America and Europe to explore the challenges and opportunities of supporting the arts in the development context The book offers a series of grounded analyses which cover strategies for the sustainability of arts enterprises innovative evaluation methods theoretical engagements with questions of art agency and social change artists entanglements with legal and structural frameworks processes of cultural mapping and the artist donor interface The creative economy is increasingly recognized as a driver of development and this book also investigates the contribution made by the arts to the processes of international development and considers how those processes can best be supported by development agencies Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development gives scholars of Development Studies Social and Cultural Geography Anthropology Cultural Policy Cultural Studies and Global Studies a contextually and thematically diverse range of insights into this emerging research field      Race-ing Art History Kymberly N. Pinder, 2013-04-15 Race-ing Art History is the first comprehensive anthology to place issues of racial representation squarely on the canvas Art produced by non Europeans has naturally been compared to Western art and its study which refers to a binary way of viewing both Each essay in this collection is a response to this vision to the distant mirror of looking at the other

Contemporary Art from Nigeria in the Global Markets Jonathan Adeyemi, 2022-12-07 This book brings together from four years of study on Nigerian contemporary art s internationalization The monograph integrates voices of African Nigerian artists and art market players into the growing discourse on the emerging art markets in the global South It explores the logic of competition and dynamics of power relations in the global markets focusing on the internationalization of contemporary art forms from peripheral regions The book confirms that the internationalization of contemporary art form from Nigeria is limited due to systematic marginalization in the artistic field which in this case based on postcolonialism and debilitating socio economic factors such as outmoded art education unstructured support system and weak mechanism for local validation and an inefficient political framework for art governance It will therefore be useful to students and researchers in the sociology of art art market studies art history and culture polity
