Reading The Landscape:

Reading the Landscape of America May Theilgaard Watts,1999 In this natural history classic the author takes the reader on field trips to landscapes across America both domesticated and wild She shows how to read the stories written in the land interpreting the clues laid down by history culture and natural forces A renowned teacher writer and conservationist in her native Midwest Watts studied with Henry Cowles the pioneering American ecologist She was the first to explain his theories of plant succession to the general public Her graceful witty essays with charming illustrations by the author are still relevant and engaging today as she invites us to see the world around us with fresh eyes
