Readings in Early Anthropology James S. Slotkin,2012-12-06 This book considers the beginnings of anthropology as a cultural tradition and examines how it was developed and transmitted It begins in the twelfth century when commercial capitalism and extensive acculturation spread a secular world view among intellectuals It ends with the eighteenth century because most anthropologists are familiar with the subsequent history of their science Originally published in 1963 The Anthropology of Education David Julian Hodges,2011 This unique anthology outlines and reconsiders the disciplinary origins of the anthropology of education The book is a student oriented compilation of classic articles written by anthropologists who helped pioneer the field some fifty years ago Their names constitute a veritable who s who in cultural anthropology Kluckhohn Linton Mead Benedict and Redfield to name a few who while accomplished in the general area of cultural anthropology nevertheless gave specific attention to the developing area of the anthropology of education Also included in the collection are contemporary classics by non anthropologists such as Paulo Freire James Baldwin and Jonathan Kozol who tackle more recent issues facing education and educators The readings are termed classic because collectively they represent the best of that to which today s students of the anthropology of education should be exposed for a first rate introduction to the field However despite their relevance and importance many of these articles are out of print difficult to find or otherwise unavailable Still there is an abiding need for the insights they provide The need for the thinking of these pioneers is as great today arguably greater than when the articles were written Their contributions and insights must not succumb to the awful tendency of our times for scholarship to be both instant and disposable Readings in Cultural Selected Readings in Anthropology University of Anthropology (Preliminary Edition) Robin Conley Riner, 2017-12-31 California, Berkeley.
