Readings In Human Development:

Readings in human development, 2005 Readings in human development Larry Fenson, 1978-01-01 Readings in Human Development, 1975 Human Development Morris L. Haimowitz, Natalie Reader Haimowitz, 1966 Readings in Human Development, Edited by Harold W. Bernard and Wesley C. Huckins Harold Wright Bernard, Wesley C. Huckins (Joint Ed), 1968 Readings in Human Development David Elkind, Donna C. Hetzel, 1977 Essential Readings in Health Behavior Mark Edberg, 2010-10-22 Health Behavior Education Promotion Readings in Human Development Theron M. Covin, 1974 Amartya Sen's Work and Ideas Bina Agarwal, Jane Humphries, Ingrid Robeyns, 2013-09-13 This unique volume is the first to examine Nobel Laureate Amartya Sen's ideas through the lens of gender. His humanitarian approach to economics has been crucial to the development of several aspects of feminist economics and gender analysis. This book outlines the range and usefulness of his work for gender analysis while also exploring some of its silences and implicit assumptions. The result is a collection of groundbreaking and insightful essays which cover major topics in Sen's work such as the capability approach, justice, freedom, social choice, agency, missing women, and development and well-being. Perspectives have been drawn from both developing and developed countries with most of the authors applying Sen's concepts to cultural, geographic, and historical contexts which differ from his original applications. Significant highlights include a wide-ranging conversation between the book's editors and Sen on many aspects of his work and an essay by Sen himself on why he is disinclined to provide a definitive list of capabilities. These essays were previously published in Feminist Economics.

Readings in Human Development Harold Wright Bernard, 1969 Leading Contemporary Economists Steven Pressman, 2008-10 This collection of essays offers an extensive critical review of the major contributions of key figures in contemporary heterodox economics including comprehensive bibliographies of their writings and lists of vital secondary material.

Education, Welfare and the Capabilities Approach Hans-Uwe Otto, Holger Ziegler, 2010-02-18 Capabilities Approach The authors assess the potentials and pitfalls of the Capabilities Approach to issues of education and welfare. Renowned philosophers, sociologists, psychologists, economists, and educational scientists explore the conceptual and practical implications of this approach for delivering socially just policies. The volume analyses the potentials and pitfalls of the Capabilities Approach (CA) which was initially developed by the Indian economist Amartya Sen and the American philosopher Martha Nussbaum. CA is considered as a philosophical approach to social justice, a scientific approach to research, welfare production, and eventually as a potentially new practically adoptable fundament for educational and social service delivery. CA is one of the currently most influential attempts to reconcile the competing demands which are associated with the fundamental conceptions of equality, recognition, and liberty and advocates an egalitarian political conception of social justice which is concerned with the cultivation, maximization, and just distribution of the real freedom of individuals. Renowned philosophers, sociologists, psychologists, economists, and educational scientists investigate the complex relation of education and welfare against the background of major economic political and cultural transformations within and across European societies

Palaces of Hope Ronald Niezen, Maria Sapignoli, 2017-01-26 This volume assembles in one place the work of scholars who are making key contributions to a new approach to the United Nations and to global organizations and international law more generally Anthropology has in recent years taken on global organizations as a legitimate source of its subject matter The research that is being done in this field gives a human face to these world reforming institutions Palaces of Hope demonstrates that these institutions are not monolithic or uniform even though loosely connected by a common organizational network They vary above all in their powers and forms of public engagement Yet there are common threads that run through the studies included here the actions of global institutions in practice everyday forms of hope and their frustration and the will to improve confronted with the realities of nationalism neoliberalism and the structures of international power

Readings in Family Theory Thomas R. Chibucos, Randall W. Leite, David L. Weis, 2005 Readings in Family Theory is an anthology of classic and contemporary articles that provides a context for student learning by demonstrating how theory fits into the overall process of scientific research on families The book provokes student interest in theory by providing examples of the scholarly application of family theory to compare how people use similar processes in everyday life Using this contextual orientation the selected readings examine nine prevalent theoretical perspectives from both family and human development sciences
