

A woman with brown hair tied back, wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, stands on a wooden suspension bridge. She is looking out over a lush green tropical landscape with rolling hills and a body of water in the distance. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. The bridge has thick wooden planks and a metal railing. Large steel cables support the bridge structure.

Feindler, 2006-04-11 In this ground breaking exploration a glittering array of specialists investigate how and why anger is viewed as a secondary emotion by most clinical theories and practitioners and seeks to answer the following questions What are anger related disorders What do they have in common and how are they different How do we treat the various anger related disorders Drawing on one case study the top notch contributors each present a different method of treatment for anger related disorders By taking into consideration the variety of perspectives and treatments available for anger related disorders this book provides an overview of how clinicians can implement each of these treatments as well as combine treatments to provide a tailored therapy for each individual client

Black Wealth, White Wealth Melvin L. Oliver, Thomas M. Shapiro, 2006 The authors analyse wealth total assets and debts rather than income alone to uncover deep and persistent racial inequality in America and show how public policies fail to redress this problem

Black Wealth / White Wealth Melvin Oliver, Thomas Shapiro, 2013-04-15 The award winning Black Wealth White Wealth offers a powerful portrait of racial inequality based on an analysis of private wealth Melvin Oliver and Thomas Shapiro s groundbreaking research analyzes wealth total assets and debts rather than income alone to uncover deep and persistent racial inequality in America and they show how public policies have failed to redress the problem First published in 1995 Black Wealth White Wealth is considered a classic exploration of race and inequality. It provided for the first time systematic empirical evidence that explained the racial inequality gap between blacks and whites. The Tenth Anniversary edition contains two entirely new and substantive chapters. These chapters look at the continuing issues of wealth and inequality in America and the new policies that have been launched in the past ten years. Some have been progressive while others only recreate inequality for example the proposal to eliminate the estate tax. Compelling and also informative. Black Wealth White Wealth is not just pioneering research. It is also a powerful counterpoint to arguments against affirmative action and a direct challenge to current social welfare policies that are tilted towards the wealthy. Pedagogies for

Children's Perspectives Catherine Patterson, Laurie Kocher, 2018-11-09 Laurie Kocher is a Faculty member in the Department of Early Childhood Care and Education Capilano University Canada. Catherine Patterson is Senior Lecturer at the Institute of Early Childhood Department of Educational Studies Macquarie University Australia. Midlife Creativity and

Identity Philip Miles, 2018-11-30 This book explores the artistic routines and inspirations of amateur and professional musicians, fine artists and literary authors experiencing midlife. Based on ethnographic insight, it argues that creativity is driven by the pursuit of a mezzanine in between states where the anarchy of possibility is an antidote to the realities of middle age. Sociology Looking at Disability Sara E. Green, Sharon N. Barnartt, 2016-12-22 The purpose of this volume is to explore existing literature with an eye towards encouraging scholars not to ask the same old questions but to use older writings as a basis for revolutionary and evolutionary thinking. What do the older writings tell us about what questions we should be asking and what research we should be doing today. Gender and Women's Leadership Karen

O'Connor, 2010-08-18 These volumes provide an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender with a focus on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains. Recognizing Race and

Ethnicity Kathleen J. Fitzgerald, 2014-02-18 Despite radical changes over the last century, race remains a central organizing principle in U.S. society, a key arena of inequality and the subject of ongoing conflict and debate. In a refreshing new introduction to the sociology of race, Recognizing Race and Ethnicity encourages students to think differently by challenging the notion that we are or should even aspire to be color blind. In this text, Kathleen Fitzgerald considers how the continuing significance of race manifests in both significant and obscure ways by looking across all racial/ethnic groups within the socio-historical context of institutions and arenas rather than discussing each group by group. Incorporating recent research and contemporary theoretical perspectives, she guides students to examine racial ideologies and identities as well as structural racism at the same time she covers topics like popular culture, sports and interracial relationships that will keep students engaged. Recognizing Race and Ethnicity provides unparalleled coverage of white privilege while remaining careful to not treat white as the norm against which all other groups are defined. Recognizing Race and Ethnicity makes it clear that in a time when race and racism are constantly evolving in response to varied social contexts, societal demands and political climates

we all must learn to recognize race if we are to get beyond it Society in Focus William E. Thompson, Joseph V. Hickey, Mica L. Thompson, 2016-04-20 Examining the role of mass media and information technology in contemporary society Society In Focus Eighth Edition emphasizes the increasing diversity and globalization of societies everywhere It is designed to help students think clearly and critically about sociological issues concepts and methods Questioning is at the heart of this approach and as students read this book they are encouraged to become part of the sociological enterprise rather than remain passive observers Every element of the text is designed to challenge students to evaluate social issues and guided by the sociological imagination to clearly formulate their own positions By asking questions that demand sociological and creative thought students are reminded that their conclusions and decisions as well as their non decisions and inaction may have important social consequences New to this edition New coauthor Mica Thompson an experienced teacher of introduction to sociology brings a fresh new perspective as well as a wide array of different life experiences to this edition of Society in Focus An expanded critical analysis in Chapter 1 introduces all forms of media and technology and every chapter examines an aspect of their powerful social influence Chapters 9 16 and 17 have been updated to include the most recent worldwide financial and economic developments to help explain globalization and cultural diversity Expanded application of feminist theory in every chapter to help students recognize the importance of gender diversity and the contributions of that theoretical perspective in sociology Updated and brand new boxes throughout encourage students to take a closer look at society and selected social issues Handbook of Constructionist Research James A. Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein Applied Social Research Timothy P. Hilton, Peter R. Fawson, Thomas J. Sullivan, Cornell R.
