Love, Luck, and Lore Theresa Hoiles,Elizabeth Carr,2006-02-01 Most cultures and societies around the world have their own unique methods for finding love For instance in Genoa Italy a yearly celebration commemorates the generosity of Count Fieschi of Lavagna who in 1240 threw a party with a 30 foot cake Townsfolk remember him with a parade and a little romance they pin to their clothing a piece of paper blue for men white for women on which a specific word is written When they find someone wearing the same word the couple is given a piece of cake And the rest is up to them This charming practice and many others can be found in Love Luck and Lore In this little book of love Theresa Hoiles and Elizabeth Carr have collected celebrations and spell rhymes fortune telling tricks and food charms to help you snag that guy you ve seen at the local coffeehouse Try putting a two leaf clover in your shoe as you say this rhyme A clover of two put it in your right shoe The first young man you meet In field street or lane You ll have him or one of his name Or make an apricot love sachet by placing some dried apricots and cloves in the center of a circular piece of cloth and tying it up with ribbon long enough to wear around your neck The tantalizing aroma should draw potential lovers your way leaving men weak in your wake Sure you can try a more scientific approach to dating following rules written by someone with a Ph D in Interpersonal Relations from Boring U But that s no fun Use these carefree and whimsical approaches quirky prayers and incantations to appeal to higher voices and spirits and bring that love into your life *Good words, ed. by N.
