Harriet Beecher Stowe, 2016-03-25 The subject of this volume is of such painful notoriety that any apology from the Publishers may seem unnecessary upon issuing the Author's reply to the counter statements which her narrative in Macmillan's Magazine has called forth Nevertheless they consider it right to state that their strong regard for the Author respect for her motives and assurance of her truthfulness would even in the absence of all other considerations be sufficient to induce them to place their imprint on the title page
