How Music Helps in Music Therapy and Everyday Life Dr Gary Ansdell,2014-02-28 Why is music so important to most of us How does music help us both in our everyday lives and in the more specialist context of music therapy This book suggests a new way of approaching these topical questions drawing from Ansdell s long experience as a music therapist and from the latest thinking on music in everyday life Vibrant and moving examples from music therapy situations are twinned with the stories of ordinary people who describe how music helps them within their everyday lives Together this complementary material leads Ansdell to present a new interdisciplinary framework showing how musical experiences can help all of us build and negotiate identities make intimate non verbal relationships belong together in community and find moments of transcendence and meaning How Music Helps is not just a book about music therapy It has the more ambitious aim to promote from a music therapist s perspective a better understanding of music and change in our personal and social life Ansdell s theoretical synthesis links the tradition of Nordoff Robbins music therapy and its recent developments in Community Music Therapy to contemporary music sociology and music studies This book will be relevant to practitioners academics and researchers looking for a broad based theoretical perspective to guide further study and policy in music well being and health

Ceremonies for Real Life Carine Fabius,2002-10 Performing ceremonies makes me feel like I have a say in how my life turns out It makes me feel like I have some form of control in how it all plays out Taking part in a ceremony means I am asking for help I put in my request back it up with the power of my creative intention and then I try to surrender to the weave already in progress At least when I am clever I surrender Because how I get there or how quickly I arrive is best left in more experienced hands

Music in Everyday Life Tia DeNora,2000-06-08 The power of music to influence mood create scenes routines and occasions is widely recognised and this is reflected in a strand of social theory from Plato to Adorno that portrays music as an influence on character social structure and action There have however been few attempts to specify this power empirically and to provide theoretically grounded accounts of music s structuring properties in everyday experience Music in Everyday Life uses a series of ethnographic studies an aerobics class karaoke evenings music therapy sessions and the use of background music in the retail sector as well as in depth interviews to show how music is a constitutive feature of human agency Drawing together concepts from psychology sociology and socio linguistics it develops a theory of music s active role in the construction of personal and social life and highlights the aesthetic dimension of social order and organisation in late modern societies
