Effacing the Self Marc De Kesel, 2023-08-01 In spirituality and mysticism many seek a counterbalance to the strong emphasis on the self that modernity demands of us We desire a fixed self on the one hand and are fascinated by selflessness on the other But is our fascination with selflessness not a ruse to make that self of ours even stronger And is that self-critical question not the kernel of even traditional mysticism Marc De Kesel investigates some dark rooms of the mystical tradition to clarify this This is a book for all who want to free themselves from the conceptual frameworks and rigid dogmas of late modern religiosity The first part of the volume deals directly with early modern Christian mysticism and more specifically with the French spiritualit and discussions centered around the problem of what it means to love God in a pure radically unselfish way The second part explores the paradoxical dialectics between self and selflessness in relation to the way Christian religion deals with its own identity If Christian love is selfless why has Christianity in the end not given up its own self its own identity The third and last part of the volume discusses the dialectics between self and selflessness in three other domains popular spirituality politics and modern science It makes clear that selflessness is not limited to mysticism but is both a fascination and a problem paradox for modernity in many fields
