Greenstein, 2016-08-23

Depicting the Creation of Woman presented a special problem for Renaissance artists The medieval iconography of Eve rising half formed from Adam's side was hardly compatible with their commitment to the naturalistic representation of the human figure At the same time the story of God constructing the first woman from a rib did not offer the kind of dignified affective pictorial narrative that artists patrons and the public prized Jack M Greenstein takes this artistic problem as the point of departure for an iconographic study of this central theme of Christian culture His book shows how the meaning changed along with the form when Lorenzo Ghiberti Andrea Pisano and other Italian sculptors of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries revised the traditional composition to accommodate a naturalistically depicted Eve At stake Greenstein argues is the role of the artist and the power of image making in reshaping Renaissance culture and religious thought
