practices Written to be read and absorbed in a single sitting each chapter addresses a different but central topic in parenting and is rooted in current thinking and theory as well as classic and modern research on that topic All chapters follow a standard organization including an introduction to the chapter as a whole followed by historical considerations of the topic a discussion of central issues and theory a review of classic and modern research forecasts of future directions for theory and research and a conclusion In addition to considering their own convictions and research the chapter contributors present and broadly interpret all major points of view and central lines of inquiry
