,2006 Altered Pasts Richard J. Evans, 2014-02-14 A bullet misses its target in Sarajevo a would be Austrian painter gets into the Viennese academy Lord Halifax becomes British prime minister in 1940 instead of Churchill seemingly minor twists of fate on which world shaking events might have hinged Alternative history has long been the stuff of parlor games war gaming and science fiction but over the past few decades it has become a popular stomping ground for serious historians The historian Richard J Evans now turns a critical slightly jaundiced eye on a subject typically the purview of armchair historians The book s main concern is examining the intellectual fallout from historical counterfactuals which the author defines as alternative versions of the past in which one alteration in the timeline leads to a different outcome from the one we know actually occurred What if Britain had stood at the sidelines during the First World War What if the Wehrmacht had taken Moscow The author offers an engaging and insightful introduction to the genre while discussing the reasons for its revival in popularity the role of historical determinism and the often hidden agendas of the counterfactual historian Most important Evans takes counterfactual history seriously looking at the insights pitfalls and intellectual implications of changing one thread in the weave of history A wonderful critical introduction to an often overlooked genre for scholars and casual readers of history alike When Home Won't Let You Stay Eva Respini, Ruth Erickson, 2019-01-01 Insightful and interdisciplinary this book considers the movement of people around the world and how contemporary artists contribute to our understanding of it In this timely volume artists and thinkers join in conversation around the topic of global migration examining both its cultural impact and the culture of migration itself Individual voices shed light on the societal transformations related to migration and its representation in 21st century art offering diverse points of entry into this massive phenomenon and its many manifestations The featured artworks range from painting sculpture and photography to installation video and sound art and their makers including Isaac Julien Richard Mosse Reena Saini Kallat Yinka Shonibare MBE and Do Ho Suh among many others hail from around the world Texts by experts in political science Latin American studies and human rights as well as contemporary art expand upon the political economic and social contexts of migration and its representation The book also includes three conversations in which artists discuss the complexity of making work about migration Amid worldwide tensions surrounding refugee crises and border security this publication provides a nuanced interpretation of the current cultural moment Intertwining themes of memory home activism and more When Home Won't Let You Stay meditates on how art both shapes and is shaped by the public discourse on migration

On Perfection Jo Longhurst, 2013-01-01 Based on a 2012 symposium on Perfection held at the Whitechapel Gallery in East London this book explores the ways in which artists engage with ideas of perfection drawing on screenings performances and discussions The symposium featured the work of an eclectic group of artists and writers who use photographic lenses of many kinds to create works that engage with or disrupt ideas of perfection Framed from an artist's perspective and spanning a diverse range of artworks that question how these ideas shape our personal identities and our social and political systems On Perfection considers the multifaceted nature of lens based practices

A Violent Embrace renée c. hoogland, 2014-01-07 Instead of asking questions about the symbolic meaning or underlying truth of a work of art renée c. hoogland is concerned with the actual work that it does in the world whether intentionally or not Why do we find ourselves in tears in front of an abstract painting Why do some cartoons of the prophet Muhammad generate worldwide political outrage What in other words is the compelling force of visual images even or especially if they are nonfigurative repulsive or downright ugly Rather than describing analyzing and interpreting artworks hoogland approaches art as an event that obtains on the level of actualization presenting retellings of specific artistic events in the light of recent interventions in aesthetic theory and proposing to conceive of the aesthetic encounter as a potentially disruptive if not violent force field with material political and practical consequences

Photography After Capitalism Ben Burbridge, 2020-11-10 A lively and polemical analysis of photography and today's vernacular photographic culture In Photography After Capitalism Benedict Burbridge makes the case for a radically expanded conception of photography encompassing the types of labor too often obscured by black boxed technologies slick platform interfaces and the compulsion to display lives to others His lively and polemical analysis of today's vernacular photographic cultures shines new light on the hidden work of smartphone assembly teams digital content moderators Street View car drivers Google Scan Ops low paid gallery interns homeless participant photographers and the photo sharing masses

The Mother Artist Catherine Ricketts,2024-04-16 Are caregiving and creative labor fundamentally at odds Is it possible for mothers to attend to both Few women artists feature prominently in the history of art and even fewer who are mothers How are motherhood and artmaking at play and at odds in the lives of women What can we learn about ambition limitation and creativity from women who persist in doing both Forged in the stress of early motherhood The Mother Artist explores the fraught yet generative ties between caregiving and creative practice As a young mother working at a museum essayist Catherine Ricketts began asking questions about the making of motherhood and the making of art Now with incantatory prose and an intuitive gaze she twines intimate meditations on parenthood with studies of the work and lives of painters writers dancers musicians and other creatives Ricketts takes readers through the studios of mother artists placing us in the company of women from the past and the present who persevere in both art and caregiving We encounter Senga Nengudi's sculptures which celebrate the pregnant body and Toni Morrison's powerful writing on childbirth We behold Joan Didion's meditations on maternal grief and Alice Neel's arresting portraits of mothers and babies And we observe the ambition of sculptor Ruth Asawa the activism of printmaker Elizabeth Catlett and the constancy of writer Madeleine L Engle The Mother Artist welcomes us into a community of creatives and includes full color images of their work Part memoir part biography and part inquiry into the visual literary and performing arts The Mother Artist contends that a brutal world needs art made by those who have cared for the vulnerable This book is for mothers who aspire to make art anyone eager to discover the stories of visionary women and all who long for a revolution of tenderness

A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15 The first transnational history of photography's accommodation in the art museum Photography was long regarded as a middle brow art by the art institution Yet at the turn of the millennium it became the hot global art of our time In this book part institutional history part account of shifting photographic theories and practices Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography's accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA Tate the Guggenheim the V A and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site
