people in their lives The Ring O' Bells Etc George Robert Sims,1886 You Girls Stay Here Elizabeth

Poynter,2018-12-14 This book will be of interest to students of both children s literature and gender studies It re examines a period long considered to be of poor quality as regards children s books It explores a range of themes such as female agency power and courage and additionally gives a linguistic analysis of selected texts The book adopts a socio cultural approach placing the authors in their historical context By focusing on a small number of authors in depth it discovers subtleties perhaps ignored by a broad brush approach While reflecting their era in some respects these writers also demonstrated individuality in their representation of gender offering a wider range of models to their readers than previous critics have acknowledged Architecture and Nation Building Mohd Tajuddin Mohd Rasdi,2015-09-18 The book outlines firstly how architects must not ignore the values and rituals of the modern society that is strongly rooted in the traditional and religious beliefs of their race and culture The modern rituals of the society interpreted within a democratic framework as well as the forces of economy will give many new ideas for spaces and forms to the designers who are concerned about building a nation through the design of structures and buildings This book provides a more progressive outlook on how architecture can be creatively and meaningfully interpreted to provide the nation with a new and exciting useful architecture and an element that can be taken pride of by all the cultures of the citizenry The first section deals with the idea of the community and its values as it impinges upon the planning and design of housing The second section deals with relooking at how a national iconic symbol should be one that is inclusive and not exclusive of a single dominant culture The third section presents a stirring criticism of clich Islamic architecture that is exclusive regressive and wasteful The book outlines some new perspective that can be taken in order to initiate a total revamp of Islamic architecture more suited to a civilized and inclusive society The fourth and final section presents new directions in the architecture of educational institutions that would emphasize the students more than the administration A Critical Introduction to Translation Studies Jean Boase-Beier,2011-04-07 Jean

Boase Beier s Critical Introduction To Translation Studies demonstrates a keen understanding of theoretical and practical translation It looks to instances where translation might not be straightforward where stylistics play an important role Examples are discussed from works of literature advertisements journalism and others where effects on the reader are central to the text and are reflected in the style It begins by setting out some of the basic problems and issues that arise in the study of translation such as the difference between literary and non literary translation the role of language content and style the question of universals and specifics in language and the notion of context The book then goes on to focus more closely on style and how it enables us to characterise literary texts and literary translation The final part looks at the translation of poetry Throughout it is conscious of the relationship between theory and practice in translation This book offers a new approach to translation grounded in stylistics and it will be an invaluable resource for undergraduates and postgraduates approaching translation studies Enid Blyton: The Biography Barbara Stoney,2011-08-26 Enid Blyton is known throughout the world for her imaginative children's books and her enduring characters such as Noddy and the Famous Five. She is one of the most borrowed authors from British libraries and still holds a fascination for readers old and young alike. Yet until 1974 when Barbara Stoney first published her official biography, little was known about this most private author even by members of her own family. The woman who emerged from Barbara Stoney's remarkable research was hardworking, complex, often difficult, and in many ways childlike. Now this widely praised classic biography has been fully updated for the twenty-first century and with the addition of new colour illustrations and a comprehensive list of Enid Blyton's writings, documents the growing appeal of this extraordinary woman throughout the world. The fascinating story of one of the world's most famous authors will intrigue and delight all those with an interest in her timeless books. A Different Kind of Summer Caron Todd, 2011-10-17

Is there life after motherhood? Widowed before her son Chris was born, Gwyn Sinclair has put all her energies into being a great mom. But after meeting David Bretton, she starts to wonder if it's time to be more than a mother. And she's starting to realize Chris needs more too. David would love to be the man who helps Gwyn find the answer to her question. Too bad his ideas about parenting Chris are completely opposite hers. Resetting Malaysia Mohd Tajuddin Mohd Rasdi, 2024-01-18

This book intends to reset and make Malaysia into a nation for the rakyat, not just for a select few. Resetting Malaysia compiles articles that put forth ideas on how every Malaysian can make changes that will eventually bind us into a single nation that respects the faiths, cultures, and lifestyles of all by challenging inherited perspectives, narratives, and perceptions. Mohd Tajuddin Mohd Rasdi explores how educational institutions impart imitative and uncritical practices, how spirituality can inspire personal and political change, and how our fractured past can be critically understood to underline that the rakyat are the true owners of the country. An Indian Rural Montage Dr. Deepa Nair, 2020-11-03

An excursion through the Indian countryside. Ten short stories from rural India capturing the complexities of the lives of the protagonists, a few of them innocent, yet others vile and scheming. All the rustic characters in the stories have their own set of trials and tribulations. The author invites the reader into an exciting journey through a medley of colorful portraits painted on the smaller canvas of the short story. Each of the characters in the book reflects the local flavor of the particular place they hail from. Rural India is a complex mix of festivals, rituals, cultural practices, local myths, stories, and beliefs. This collection attempts to capture these hues and shades with Nature as a predominant element across the narratives. All the characters in the stories and their attributes and portrayals are the creations of the writer's imagination. None of the characters portray anyone living or dead.

Enjoying the Track of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Ring O Bells Mystery

In a world eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous conversation, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony produced by the prepared word usually fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of Ring O Bells Mystery a marvelous fictional treasure full of fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced.
