The Best of the Bellevue Literary Review (Large Print 16pt) Danielle Ofri, 2010-07 Founded just six years ago Bellevue Literary Review is already widely recognized as a rare forum for emerging and celebrated writers Julia Alvarez Raphael Campo Rick Moody and Abraham Verghese among them on issues of health and healing Gat R.I.P. Off! Ken West, 2013-10-01 Can the British laugh in the face of death and funerals Do they really want to know what happens when they hand their body over to the men in black You are a short time alive and a long time dead Go on risk it read this irreverent fictionalised tale of real and astonishing events beginning in 1993 At times deadly serious at times deadly funny It s the mysterious world of the funeral directors as they try to kill off burial under trees and oppose DIY funerals It s a world of embalming pink glitzy shrouds crappy coffins brawling at funerals and girl power Nobody s resting in peace It spawns a revolution but twenty years later who is really in control Find out if you dare Having been involved with over 100 000 funerals and keeping detailed diaries of incidents that truly happened to him Ken West has become somewhat of an expert on the matter R I P Off provides a unique insight into the world of death and funerals that readers cannot gain by any other means R I P Off features the impact of divorce religious dogma and belief road and drug deaths family disputes poverty obesity health and longevity commercialism and how death has a significant environmental impact It shows how people deal with death in a myriad of ways an approach that attempts to demistify death to some degree Written as a counter view to Jessica Mitford s The American Way of Death West s novel is an easy read that sets the scene for the UK s own industry which is acknowledged as a world leader in green and alternative funerals The book will appeal to those with a penchant for black humour who enjoy television programmes such as Six Feet Under and who possess a not always healthy morbid interest in death and dying
