Rise And Fall Of Fu Ren University Beijing Catholic Higher Education In China:

The Rise and Fall of Fu Ren University, Beijing John S. Chen, 2003-12-16 This new book tells the story of the rise and fall of Fu Ren University 1925 1952 and provides an analysis of a key Catholic higher education institution in China The Rise and Fall of Fu Ren University, Beijing John Shujie Chen, 2004 Catholic Higher Education in China John Shujie Chen, 2003 Perspectives on the History of Higher Education Roger L. Geiger, 2017-07-05 The early twentieth century witnessed the rise of middle class mass periodicals that while offering readers congenial material also conveyed new depictions of manliness liberal education and the image of business leaders Should Your Boy Go to College asked one magazine story and for over two decades these middle class magazines answered in numerous permutations with a collective yes In the course of interpreting these themes they reshaped the vision of a college education and created the ideal of a college educated businessman Volume 24 of the Perspectives on the History of Higher Education 2005 provides historical studies touching on contemporary concerns gender high ability students academic freedom and in the case of the Barnes Foundation the authority of donor intent Daniel Clark discusses the nuanced changes that occurred to the image of college at the turn of the century Michael David Cohen offers an important corrective to stereotypes about gender relations in nineteenth century coeducational colleges Jane Robbins traces how the young National Research Council embraced the cause of how to identify and encourage superior students as a vehicle for incorporating wartime advances in psychological testing Susan R Richardson considers the long Texas tradition of political interference in university affairs Finally Edward Epstein and Marybeth Gasman shed historical light on the recent controversy surrounding the Barnes Foundation The volume also contains brief descriptions of twenty recent doctoral dissertations in the history of higher education This serial publication will be of interest to historians sociologists and of course educational policymakers Confessions of a Chinese Heroine Teresa Ying Mulan, 2021-08-26 The memoirs of Sister Ying Mulan describe her experiences as a Chinese Christian living in a turbulent era marked by the Communist takeover the Cultural Revolution and many momentous political reforms Born into a family of politically active Catholics Ying Mulan was eventually imprisoned in Shanghai and later sent to serve in labor camps for over twenty years While living through such difficult circumstances Ying Mulan derived strength from her faith At the age of 60 she became a religious sister and twenty five years later she decided to write her autobiography In this book Francis Morgan offers the first English translation of Sr Ying s memoirs providing explanatory notes based on historical research and a series of extensive interviews with Sr Ying As she recounts the trials that she and others endured Sr Ying speaks with a remarkable tone of gratitude giving thanks to God for the tests that steeled her character tempered her pride and increased her compassion While her work stands out as a modern spiritual autobiography it also deserves recognition as a political text Sr Ying s memoirs offer valuable and rare insights into the realities of religious life in China the hidden world of labor camps and prisons and the extremes of Cultural Revolution Identity and

Internationalization in Catholic Universities Hans de Wit, Andrés Bernasconi, Visnja Car, Fiona Hunter, Michael James, Daniela Véliz, 2018-08-02 Identity and Internationalization in Catholic Universities explores the relationship between Catholic identity mission and internationalization in Catholic universities of different types and located in different contexts

Internationalization is a key concern for universities working to achieve their goals in different regions of the world but without neglecting their identity There are many universities that consider themselves related to the Roman Catholic faith and many other universities with Christian affiliations It is well known that Catholic universities have unique missions such as the formation of individuals inspired by a religious conviction to serve society and the church That is why it is imperative to have empirical knowledge to help develop practical and effective policies on central themes such as internationalization a fundamental part of many universities developmental strategies while paying special attention to each university s specific context This book includes sixteen case studies from Latin America the United States the Asia Pacific and Europe and also includes chapters on regional perspectives on Catholic higher education as well as more specifically Jesuit higher education the global network of La Salle universities and internationalization in the United States Latin America the Asia Pacific region and Europe

Higher Education, State and Society Lili Yang, 2022-09-08 In this monograph Lili Yang compares core ideas about the state society and higher education in two major world traditions She explores the broad cultural and philosophical ideas underlying the public good of higher education in the two traditions reveals their different social imaginaries and works through five areas where higher education intersects with the individual society the state and the world intersections understood in contrasting ways in each tradition The five key themes are individual student development in higher education equity in higher education academic freedom and university autonomy the resources and outcomes of higher education and cross border higher education activities and higher education s global outcomes In exploring the similarities Yang highlights important meeting points between the two world views with the potential to contribute to the mutual understanding and cooperation across cultures

Christianity and the Modern Woman in East Asia Garrett L. Washington, 2018-09-04 This edited volume explores the complex roles that Christian ideas and institutions played in the construction of modern womanhood in East Asia While contributing to gender dynamics that disprivileged women in China Japan and Korea Christianity was also instrumental in women s efforts to empower themselves and participate in the public sphere Many literate East Asian women mobilized Christian beliefs knowledge institutions and networks to raise the profile of The Woman Question frame the contours of the related debate and craft original responses These chapters examine East Asian women who were markedly influenced by Christianity as students trainees educators professionals and activists Using their increased visibility and resources they addressed the dilemmas and promises of modernity for women in their countries

The Diffusion of Western Economic Ideas in East Asia Malcolm Warner, 2016-12-19 This book examines the diffusion of economic ideas in East Asia assessing the impact of external ideas on internal theory and practice It considers economists from Adam Smith onwards including Marx Keynes Hayek and contemporary economists and covers the subject both historically and also includes present day and likely future developments The book covers all the major countries of East Asia and pays particular attention to specific economists who have had a strong impact in specific countries and to important developments in economic theory in East Asia exploring how far these have been driven by Western economic ideas This book will be welcomed by students and scholars of East Asia and South east Asia as well as those interested in economics economic history and management

Salvation and Revolution Jesse Zexi Sun,2025 This book traces the intellectual and spiritual journeys of Chinese Protestant intellectuals Zhao Zichen Wu Yaozong and Cai Yongchun among many in the tumultuous 20th century China from the fall of the Qing Dynasty through the Cultural Revolution These leaders strove to align their Christian faith with the challenges of a nation in upheaval initially advocating a Liberal Synthesis that fused Christian ethics with national renewal As wars and revolutions swept across China figures like Wu Yaozong turned to socialism while others like Zhao and Cai embraced more conservative theological positions The rise of the CCP during the Chinese Civil War divided their paths yet all remained dedicated to a role of Christianity in China s future

Christian Monks on Chinese Soil Matteo Nicolini-Zani,2016-10-21 The contribution of monks to the evangelization of lands not yet reached by the preaching of the Gospel has certainly been remarkable The specific witness that the monastic community gives is of a radical Christian life naturally radiating outward and thus it is implicitly missionary The process of inculturation of Christian monasticism in China required a bold spiritual attitude of openness to the future and a willingness to accept the transformation of monastic forms that had been received In Christian Monks on Chinese Soil Matteo Nicolini Zani highlights the willingness of foreign monks to encounter the cultural and spiritual realities of China and the degree of acceptance by the Chinese of the form of monastic life that was presented to them by the missionaries

Democratizing Higher Education Policy M.T. Sehoole,2013-10-14 This book was written with the purpose of analyzing the challenges faced by the post apartheid government in South Africa with regard to reform of higher education It covers the apartheid context of higher education resistance to the system and its ultimate demise democratic processes in post apartheid reform agenda and how this agenda was emptied of its radical content as a result of global and local pressures Highlighted are key constraints in the reform process including the compromise pact agreed upon between the apartheid government and the ruling African National Congress the rapidly globalizing environment underpinned by neoliberal principles within which South Africa s transition took place shifts in macro economic policies of government towards neo liberal policy the inheritance of the bureaucracy and the inexperience of new government officials These are presented in a narrative style that combines the author s experience the voices of key players involved and important data from a range of documentary sources This is the first single authored book in post apartheid South African that has systematically looked at higher education reform

WTO/GATS and the Global Politics of Higher Education Antoni Verger,2010-04-15 The General Agreement on Trade in

Services GATS has furthered international pressure towards the liberalization of education all over the world Antoni Verger explores the constitution of global liberalization entailed by the GATS as well as the opposition to this process Asia and China in the Global Era Adrian J. Bailey, Ricardo K. S. Mak, 2021-01-18 China's strong economic growth occurring alongside modernization across the great majority of Asian societies has created what many see as a transnational space through and by which not only economic social and cultural resources but also threats and crises flow over traditional political boundaries The first section of the work lays out a clear conceptual framework It draws on arguments about nation no longer being the only container of society about trans disciplinary thinking and about knowledge being context bound It identifies and discusses distinctive features of China and Asia in the global era These include population urbanization and climate change the continuing reach of Orientalist shadows cultural politics of knowledge It closes by arguing how global studies adds value to existing accounts The second and longer section applies this framework through a series of original empirical case studies in three areas migration poverty gender culture education well being Both the conceptual framework and case studies are drawn from research presented at HKBU since 2011 under the auspices of the Global Social Sciences Conference Series and supplemented by additional papers Sinicizing Christianity, 2017-04-18 Chinese people have been instrumental in indigenizing Christianity Sinicizing Christianity examines Christianity's transplantation to and transformation in China by focusing on three key elements Chinese agents of introduction Chinese redefinition of Christianity for the local context and Chinese institutions and practices that emerged and enabled indigenisation As a matter of fact Christianity is not an exception but just one of many foreign ideas and religions which China has absorbed since the formation of the Middle Kingdom Buddhism and Islam are great examples Few scholars of China have analysed and synthesised the process to determine whether there is a pattern to the ways in which Chinese people have redefined foreign imports for local use and what insight Christianity has to offer Contributors are Robert Entenmann Christopher Sneller Yuqin Huang Wai Luen Kwok Thomas Harvey Monica Romano Thomas Coomans Chris White Dennis Ng Ruiwen Chen and Richard Madsen The Women's Movement and the Politics of Change at a Women's College David A. Greene, 2004-05 This study analyzes how Jill Ker Conway first woman president of Smith College implemented programmatic initiatives and changes to Smith's institutional culture that fit with her vision for higher education History of Universities Mordechai Feingold, 2006-10-12 Volume XXI 2 of History of Universities contains the customary mix of learned articles book reviews conference reports and bibliographical information which makes this publication such an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education Its contributions range widely geographically chronologically and in subject matter The volume is as always a lively combination of original research and invaluable reference material Adaptation of Western Economics by Russian Universities Tatiana Suspitsyna, 2005-08-23 This book examines an intercultural translation of economics as an academic field from Western to post Soviet university settings Teacher Education for Critical Consumption of Mass

Media and Popular Culture Stephanie A. Flores-Koulis, 2020-10-28 The study develops a baseline of knowledge to encourage the inclusion of media literacy education in teacher education
