Wieland, 2018-03-29 A state of mourning is something that the late twentieth century has been uniquely unable to achieve A culture based on the interchangeability of products and people a throw away culture is not conducive to mourning Inanimate objects have replaced human ideals A culture of virtual reality which finds it difficult to distinguish between the living and the inanimate has been created a culture of the undead This culture is not grounded on human relationships but in the destruction of them In this book Christina Wieland offers the reader a far reaching and devastating critique of masculinity femininity and contemporary culture Drawing inspiration from the work of Melanie Klein the author demonstrates how the Western psyche is based upon denial of the power of the mother and the elevation of the father into a repressive authoritarian figure This act of universal matricide has wrought havoc throughout Western culture As Wieland graphically illustrates both women and men are denied the opportunity to mourn their separation from the mother but must contend instead with the guilt that surrounds her murder and the ever present terror of her vengeful return as the undead mother Reappraising masculinity and femininity the author revisits a wide and fascinating range of myths fairytales and stories Her critique casts new light on the writings of Freud Klein Kristeva and Irigaray Her vivid presentations of clinical material also show how the undead mother makes her presence felt in the consulting room and the steps which can be taken towards more genuine reparative mourning Divine Power in Process Theism David Basinger, 1988-01-01 Out of the Shadows Neill Lochery, 2017-02-23 Out of the Shadows is a full account of post authoritarian democratic Portugal 1974 to Present following the Carnation Revolution which began on April 25th 1974 and based on documentary sources personal accounts and unpublished documents from the National Archive in Kew Lisbon and Portugal's best days are behind them is a common theme put forward by writers who focus their attention on the golden era of Portuguese discoveries the Empire and the role of Lisbon as a major Atlantic power Neill Lochery's book demonstrates that Portugal is not suffering from such inevitable decline In 1974 a dramatic overnight coup led to the fall of the Estado Novo dictatorship in Portugal in Lisbon the events became known as the Carnation Revolution As the colonies collapsed the United States helped airlift 13 000 refugees from Angola back to Portugal as US Secretary of State Henry Kissinger maneuvered to advance the moderate side of the government in Lisbon over the radicals and thus guarantee US interests As Neill Lochery argues one of the major misunderstandings of the post revolution era in Portugal has been the concentration on domestic over international factors in helping to shape its story Having emerged from its twentieth century financial crisis and bail out and thus out of the shadows he argues that Portugal is a country of huge relevance to the present day and of great future significance to the European continent Indeed the strengthening of bonds between Portugal and its European neighbours can be seen to be more important than ever given the heightened tensions in European politics the refugee crisis and the prospect of a changing European Union Medical Biotechnology Innovation in India P Omkar Nadh, 2022-06-03 This book examines the medical biotechnology industry in India through the lens of a critical political economy It discusses the sharp trajectory of growth in the biotechnology business and the state of investments subsidies and patents which propelled the rise of the industry in India The book uses in depth interviews and case studies to analyse the roles of various financial actors state institutions and academia in the medical biotechnology ecosystem Focusing on the relationship between India's neoliberal policies and the swift growth of the industry the author examines the merits and demerits of the current market driven biomedical ecosystem exploring the trends in the industry biomedical start ups the use of human resources and capital accumulation process The
