Queen of the Court Madeleine Blais, 2023-08-15 From the Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Madeleine Blais the dramatic and colorful story of legendary tennis star and international celebrity Alice Marble In August 1939 Alice Marble graced the cover of Life magazine photographed by the famed Alfred Eisenstaedt She was a glamorous worldwide celebrity having that year won singles women's doubles and mixed doubles tennis titles at both Wimbledon and the US Open then an unprecedented feat Yet today one of America's greatest female athletes and most charismatic characters is largely forgotten Queen of the Court places her back on center stage Born in 1913 Marble grew up in San Francisco her favorite sport baseball Given a tennis racket at age 13 she took to the sport immediately rising to the top with a powerful aggressive serve and volley style unseen in women's tennis A champion at the height of her fame in the late 1930s she also designed a clothing line in the off season and sang as a performer in the Sert Room of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York to rave reviews World War II derailed her amateur tennis career but her life off the court was if anything even more eventful She wrote a series of short books about famous women She turned professional and joined a pro tour during the War entertaining and inspiring soldiers and civilians alike Ever glamorous and connected she had a part in the 1952 Tracy and Hepburn movie Pat and Mike and she played tennis with the likes of Charlie Chaplin Marlene Dietrich and her great friends Clark Gable and Carole Lombard However perhaps her greatest legacy lies in her successful efforts working largely alone to persuade the all white US Lawn Tennis Association to change its policy and allow African American star Althea Gibson to compete for the US championship in 1950 thereby breaking tennis's color barrier In two memoirs Marble also showed herself to be an at times unreliable narrator of her own life which Madeleine Blais navigates skillfully especially Marble's dramatic claims of having been a spy during World War II In Queen of the Court the author of the bestselling In These Girls Hope Is a Muscle recaptures a glittering life story Departments of Transportation, Treasury, the Judiciary, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Appropriations for Fiscal Year ... United States. Appropriations,2006 The Book of Agreement Stewart Levine,2010-06 Teaches a fundamental life skill crafting mutually satisfying agreements Describes ten essential elements for designing agreements focused on achieving results rather than providing remedies for what might go wrong a more effective alternative to the traditional legal adversarial approach Includes thirty model agreements for business personal and professional uses Crafting agreements with others is a fundamental life skill Unfortunately we were never taught how to do it The agreements most people make are incomplete and ineffective they usually focus on protecting against what might go wrong instead of figuring out how to make things go right The Book of Agreement offers a new approach Stewart Levine demonstrates the superiority of agreements for results versus agreements for protection and outlines ten principles for creating agreements that explicitly articulate desired outcomes and provide a roadmap to achieving them He includes over thirty specific templates that can be used to create this new type of agreement for results in a variety of organizational and personal contexts Cognitive Approaches to Tense, Aspect, and Epistemic Modality Adeline Patard, Frank Brisard,2011 This volume addresses problems of semantics regarding the analysis of tense and aspect TA markers in a variety of languages including Arabic Croatian English French German Russian Thai and Turkish Its main interest goes out to epistemic uses of such markers whereby epistemic modality is understood as indicating a degree of compatibility between the modal world and the factual world Declerck All contributions moreover tackle these problems from a more or less cognitive point of view with some of them insisting on the need to provide a unifying explanation for all usage types temporal and non temporal and all of them accepting the premise that the semantics of TA categories essentially refers to subjective rather than objective concerns The volume also represents one of the first attempts to gather accounts of TA marking in various languages that are explicitly set within the framework of Cognitive Grammar Ultimately this volume aims to contribute to establishing an awareness that modal meaning elements are directly relevant to the analysis of the grammar of time Three Rims and a Hubcap Gentile,2016-03-29 It is impossible to judge individuals who are not like us because each persons view is different Vantage point is not based on right or wrong but on survival or extensions In this work of fiction the seat of evil shines brightest at night PeopleSmart Freda Hansburg,2000 It turns out that when you become savvy about other people or people smart you become smarter about yourself as well That s the hidden practical message in Mel Silberman and Freda Hansburg s intelligent new book They bring their considerable expertise and hands on experience to bear in these lessons on building interpersonal skills Simply laid out yet well written and concise the book walks you through the sets of skills you need to master As you learn to understand and apply them you gradually sense the impact these skills can have on your ability to lead and excel getAbstract recommends this book to those who are interested in improving their people skills and remember you re a people too PeopleSmart Mel Silberman,2000-06-12 Two psychologists explain the benefits of refining enhancing and applying people skills in professional and personal situations Includes a five step plan to develop and practice skills in various settings The last Dawn Shyam
