

Engraved by Deborah LeSueur

I was born at the beginning of the sweetest and bloodiest century at Rome, but in a white square parthenon house in the corn hills, of two physically beautiful people who had come west through the Indian and the Lincoln country, creating the new life of the American by enormous and rugged and gay meetings with the Church, the Indian, the being preachers, abolitionists, apostles, radical lawyers on the Lincoln, Illinois front.
Disasters and democrats and radicals through five generations.
And the young strangers keep coming on. Seven grandchildren old and new grandchildren fling out, feel out the new strengths.
Klagen for 74. Survival is a form of resistance.
