Semblance And Reality:

Narrativity, Coherence and Literariness Eva Sabine Wagner, 2020-06-08 The search for the defining qualities of narrative has produced an expansive range of definitions which largely unconnected with each other obscure the notion of narrativity rather than clarifying it The first part of this study remedies this shortcoming by developing a graded macro model of narrativity which serves three aims Firstly it provides a structured overview of the field of narrative elements and processes Secondly it facilitates the classification of narratological approaches by locating them on different stages of narrativity Finally it focuses attention on narrative dynamics as interpretative processes by which readers seek to produce narrative coherence The second part of this study identifies three different narrative dynamics which characterise Laclos's Dangerous Connections Kafka's Castle and Toussaint's novels Wagner bases her analyses of these dynamics not only on the texts themselves but also on the ways in which literary scholars imbue the texts with narrative coherence This book provides a long overdue systematisation of the jumbled field of theories of narrativity and opens new perspectives on the difficult relationship between narrative theory and interpretation

Mood and Trope John Brenkman, 2020-01-28 Reconnect's affect studies with major issues in literary studies philosophy and aesthetics a fundamental contribution to this emergent field Jonathan Culler Cornell University author of Structuralist Poetics In Mood and Trope John Brenkman introduces two provocative propositions to affect theory that human emotion is intimately connected to persuasion and figurative language and that literature especially poetry lends precision to studying affect because it resides there not in speaking about feelings but in the way of speaking itself Engaging modern philosophers Kant Nietzsche Heidegger and Deleuze Brenkman explores how they all approach the question of affect primarily through literature and art He draws on the differences and dialogues among them arguing that the vocation of criticism is incapable of systematicity and instead must be attuned to the singularity and plurality of literary and artistic creations In addition he confronts these four philosophers and their essential concepts with a wide array of authors and artists including Pinter and Poe Baudelaire Jorie Graham and Li Young Lee Shakespeare Tino Sehgal and Francis Bacon Filled with surprising insights Mood and Trope provides a rich archive for rethinking the nature of affect and its aesthetic and rhetorical stakes Combining philosophical inquiry with brilliant interpretive readings Brenkman draws out the distinctive imbrications of mood and trope across a range of modern poetic projects

Amanda Anderson Brown University author of Psyche and Ethos Brenkman shows us how literature has extended and deepened the possibilities of feeling and knowledge of feeling alike Susan Stewart Princeton University author of The Open Studio Essays on Art and Aesthetics Eminently readable Choice

Life as Art Zachary Simpson, 2012-01-01 Life as Art synthesizes a number of aesthetic theories in philosophy after 1850 and shows the ways in which they contribute to a unified field of analysis and potential implementation The book is framed both as a secondary text analyzing 19th and 20th Century aesthetics and a primary argument for the viability of life as art as a unified philosophical position

Badiou,2018-05-18 Everywhere the twentieth century has been judged and condemned the century of totalitarian terror of utopian and criminal ideologies of empty illusions of genocides of false avant gardes of democratic realism everywhere replaced by abstraction It is not Badiou s wish to plead for an accused that is perfectly capable of defending itself without the authors aid Nor does he seek to proclaim like Frantz the hero of Sartre s Prisoners of Altona I have taken the century on my shoulders and I have said I will answer for it The Century simply aims to examine what this accursed century from within its own unfolding said that it was Badiou s proposal is to reopen the dossier on the century not from the angle of those wise and sated judges we too often claim to be but from the standpoint of the century itself Political Thought and Political History

Contemporary Fiction Kiron Ward,2025-01-09 Taking as key examples work by Don DeLillo Leslie Marmon Silko Roberto Bola o and Karen Tei Yamashita this book looks at engagements with encyclopaedic thought and practice in contemporary fiction Chapters provide important new insights into the new ways that authors approach reclaim and use totality as a method for approaching the contemporary rather than an object to be represented In this we find some of the most radical and challenging attempts in recent fiction to reimagine our world on the back of a contested history and in the face of an unstable future Where major studies of literary encyclopaedism have historically tended to draw from the canon this book looks to move beyond this tradition and pays particular attention to work from Indigenous Asian American and Latin American contexts In doing so it looks to address the challenges of reading world literature in the contemporary A History of Aesthetic Bernard Bosanquet,1910 A History of Aesthetic Bernard Bosanquet,2005-12-01 Among the ancients the fundamental theory of the beautiful was connected with the notions of rhythm symmetry harmony of parts in short with the general formula of unity in variety Among the moderns we find that more emphasis is laid on the idea of significance expressiveness the utterance of all that life contains in general that is to say on the conception of the characteristic form Definition of Beauty T H Green called him the most gifted man of his generation Certainly he was one of the most popular and most influential British idealists of the early 20th century and an intellectual cousin of Ludwig Wittgenstein and Bertrand Russell In this definitive work first published in 1892 Bernard Bosanquet explores the realm of aesthetics the philosophy of art from a romantic almost mystical perspective discussing how the appreciation of art exposes the spirituality of humanity and why it is a vital component to any metaphysical understanding of the universe From the earliest Greek poetry and Latin comedy to very modern ideas about ugly beauty and the impact of science on art Bosanquet will change the way you look at art British scholar and philosopher BERNARD BOSANQUET 1848 1923 also wrote among his many works Logic or the Morphology of Knowledge 1888 The Civilization of Christendom and Other Studies 1893 and Social and International Ideals Being Studies in Patriotism 1917 Adorno's Aesthetics as a Literary Theory of Art Mario Farina, 2020-06-23 This book re examines Adorno's aesthetics developing a new literary approach that aims to unveil hidden elements of Adorno's thought Farina proposes to read Adorno's aesthetics as a literary theory of art showing its efficacy in its comprehension of the most advanced trends of contemporary literature As a result this book provides an image of Adorno's aesthetics as a complete satisfying and consistent philosophy of literature a robust theory which is able to stand its ground in contemporary aesthetic debate Challenging the prevalent prejudice that defines Adorno's thought and especially his aesthetics as modernist Farina argues that Adorno's philosophy of literature shows its value precisely in its application to and comprehension of postmodern literature such as the works of Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo and David Foster Wallace Precise and compelling this book provides a new paradigm for understanding Adorno's theory of artwork serving as an essential reference for researches investigating the relation between classical critical theory and contemporary art Phantasy, Image Consciousness, and Memory (1898-1925) Edmund Husserl, 2006-01-17 This is the first English translation of Husserliana XXIII the volume in the critical edition of Edmund Husserl's works that gathers together a rich array of posthumous texts on representational consciousness The lectures and sketches comprising this work make available the most profound and comprehensive Husserlian account of image consciousness They explore phantasy in depth and furnish nuanced accounts of perception and memory Nietzsche: The Birth of Tragedy and Other Writings Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche, 1999-04-22 The Birth of Tragedy is one of the seminal philosophical works of the modern period Nietzsche's discussion of the nature of culture of the conditions under which it can flourish and of those under which it will decline his analysis of the sources of discontent with the modern world his criticism of rationalism and of traditional morality his aesthetic theories and his conception of the Dionysiac have had a profound influence on the philosophy literature music and politics of the twentieth century This edition presents a new translation by Ronald Speirs and an introduction by Raymond Geuss that sets the work in its historical and philosophical context The volume also includes two essays on related topics that Nietzsche wrote during the same period and that throw further light on the themes treated in the main text Fictions Markus Gabriel, 2024-03-12 From ancient philosophy to contemporary theories of fiction it is a common practice to relegate illusory appearances to the realm of the non-existent like shadows on the wall of Plato's cave Contrary to this traditional mode of drawing a metaphysical distinction between reality and fiction Markus Gabriel argues that the realm of the illusory fictional imaginary and conceptually indeterminate is as real as it gets Being in touch with reality need not and cannot require that we overcome appearances in order to grasp a meaningless reality which exists out there outside and maybe even beyond our minds Human mindedness Geist exists in the mode of fictions through which we achieve self-consciousness This novel approach provides a fresh perspective on our existence as subjects who lead their lives in the light of self-conceptions Fictions also develops a social ontology according to which the social unfolds as a constant renegotiation of dissent of different points of view onto the same reality Thus we cannot ever hope to ground human society in a fiction-free realm of objective transactions However this does not mean that truth and reality are somehow outdated concepts On the contrary we need to enlarge our conception of reality so that it fully encompasses ourselves as specifically minded social animals This major new work of philosophy will be of interest to students and scholars throughout the humanities and to anyone interested in contemporary philosophy and social thought Theory of the Avant-garde Peter Bürger, 1984 Understanding the Art of Sound Organization Leigh Landy, 2007-08-17 The first work to propose a comprehensive musicological framework to study sound-based music a rapidly developing body of work that includes electroacoustic art music turntable composition and acoustic and digital sound installations The art of sound organization also known as electroacoustic music uses sounds not available to traditional music making including prerecorded synthesized and processed sounds The body of work of such sound-based music which includes electroacoustic art music turntable composition computer games and acoustic and digital sound installations has developed more rapidly than its musicology Understanding the Art of Sound Organization proposes the first general foundational framework for the study of the art of sound organization defining terms discussing relevant forms of music categorizing works and setting sound-based music in interdisciplinary contexts Leigh Landy's goal in this book is not only to create a theoretical framework but also to make the work more accessible to suggest a way to understand sound-based music to give a listener what he terms something to hold on to for example by connecting elements in a work to everyday experience Landy considers the difficulties of categorizing works and discusses such types of works as sonic art and electroacoustic music pointing out where they overlap and how they are distinctive He proposes a sound-based music paradigm that transcends such traditional categories as art and pop music Landy defines patterns that suggest a general framework and places the studies of sound-based music into interdisciplinary contexts from acoustics to semiotics proposing a holistic research approach that considers the interconnectedness of a given work's history, theory, technological aspects and social impact. The author's ElectroAcoustic Resource Site EARS www.ears.dmu.ac.uk the architecture of which parallels this book's structure offers updated bibliographic resource abstracts and related information. Reality TV Mark Andrejevic, 2004-09-08 Drawing on cultural theory and interviews with fans, cast members and producers, this book places the reality TV trend within a broader social context, tracing its relationship to the development of a digitally enhanced surveillance-based interactive economy and to a savvy mistrust of mediated reality in general. Surveying several successful reality TV formats, the book links the rehabilitation of Big Brother to the increasingly important economic role played by the work of being watched. The author enlists critical social theory to examine how the appeal of the real is deployed as a pervasive but false promise of democratization. After Nietzsche J. Marsden, 2002-10-02 From The Birth of Tragedy to his experimental physiology of art, Nietzsche examines the aesthetic, erotic and sacred dimensions of rapture, hinting at how an ecstatic philosophy is realized in his elusive doctrine of Eternal Return. Jill Marsden pursues the implications of this legacy.

Shimmering Mirrors Patrick Laude, 2017-10-26 A study of comparative metaphysics that explores the concepts of Reality and Appearance and their relevance to contemporary religious consciousness. In this pioneering work of comparative metaphysics, Patrick Laude delves into Buddhist, Christian, Hindu, Islamic and Jewish concepts of Reality and Appearance to offer a uniquely lucid exploration of metaphysical representations of reality, relativity, appearance and illusion. Laude includes discussions of the Absolute and the Relative in Hindu Advaita Vedānta, Kashmiri Saivism, Sufi wahdat al-wujūd and Madhyamaka Buddhism, the metaphysics of salvation in Buddhist and Christian traditions and the metaphysics of evil and the distinction between Reality and Appearance in the Jewish Kabbalah, Saivism, Christian mysticism and the Sufi school of Ibn al-Arab. The book explores how a discerning and subtle apprehension of the relationship between Reality and Appearance may help contemporary readers and seekers respond to the acute predicaments of contemporary religious and spiritual consciousness. I have rarely read a work that is so lucid in explaining complex philosophical theories across multiple traditions so articulate in constructing concise ideas and so strategic in assembling a framework for analysis. This is a unique and special work of comparative metaphysics rarely found in contemporary works on philosophies of religion. Lee Irwin, author of Alchemy of Soul: The Art of Spiritual Transformation.
