SEMIOTICS:
An Introductory Anthology

Edited with Introductions by Robert E. Innis

Charles Morris once said that the concept of sign may prove as fundamental to the sciences of men as the concept of atom has been to the physical sciences or the cell for biology. What is a sign? Why are there signs? Where do signs come from? How many types and kinds of signs are there? What is the basis for their classification? What are their respective powers? What are their uses? Semiotics deals with all these questions and more. It is perhaps one of the most exciting contemporary intellectual developments. The texts in this volume are the classic statements in semiotics and touch on a vast set of problems and themes—philosophical, aesthetic, literary, cultural, biological, anthropological, and so on. Authors represented are: Charles Sanders Peirce, Ferdinand de Saussure, V. N. Vološinov, Karl Bühler, Susanne K. Langer, Claude Lévi-Strauss, Gregory Bateson, Roman Jakobson, Charles Morris, Roland Barthes, Meyer Schapiro, Émile Benveniste, Umberto Eco, René Thom, and Thomas A. Sebeok.

ROBERT E. INNIS, Professor of Philosophy at the University of Lowell, has published many articles in philosophy, semiotics, and social and cultural theory and is the author of Karl Bühler: Semiotic Foundations of Language Theory (Plenum) and the translator of The Central Texts of Ludwig Wittgenstein, by Gerd Brand (Basil Blackwell).

A Literary Semiotics Approach to the Semantic Universe of George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four Murat Kalelioğlu, 2019-01-03 Semiotics can be considered as a well organized signification journey taken among the pages of the work of art It requires background knowledge related to the field and its analysis tools as well as careful reading practices in the text to reach the projected destination after stopping over in certain stations These stations represent meaning intersections where the meaningful formations are articulated to contribute to the generation of the semantic universe of the text The presentation of such a fictional universe can be complicated because of the nature of the literary work and the language used With regards to Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four what makes its fiction precious is the masterful acts of the author in both paradigmatic and syntagmatic dimensions This book conducts a semiotic analysis in order to unfold the enigmatic semantic organization of Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four narrative by penetrating the formative structures at various meaning levels of the text

Semiotic Theory of Learning Andrew Stables, Winfried Nöth, Alin Olteanu, Sébastien Pesce, Eetu Pikkarainen, 2018-05-15 Semiotic Theory of Learning asks what learning is and what brings it about challenging the hegemony of psychological and sociological constructions of learning in order to develop a burgeoning literature in semiotics as an educational foundation Drawing on theoretical research and its application in empirical studies the book attempts to avoid the problematization of the distinction between theory and practice in semiotics It covers topics such as signs significance and semiosis the ontology of learning the limits of learning ecosemiotics ecology and sexuality The book is written by five of the key figures in the semiotics field each committed to the belief that living is a process of interaction through acts of signification with a signifying environment While the authors are agreed on the value of semiotic frameworks the book aims not to present an entirely coherent line in every respect but rather to reflect ongoing scholarship and debates in the area In light of this the book offers a range of possible interpretations of major semiotic theorists unsettling assumptions while offering a fresh and still developing series of perspectives on learning from academics grounded in semiotics Semiotic Theory of Learning is a timely and valuable text that will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduates working in the fields of educational studies semiotics psychology philosophy applied linguistics and media studies
