Battle in WWII, July to September 1942 Maximino Argüelles Martínez,2019-08-30 FRONTOVİK was the name that the veterans who served in the Soviet Armed Forces across the Great Patriotic War between 1941 and 1945 were known. The purpose of this FRONTOVİK is to reflect the structure and deployment of the Red Army throughout the year 1942. This work is part of a global monthly study from June 1941 to September 1945. The main sources for this study were the documents published by the Department of Military History of the Ministry of Defence of the Soviet Union in 1966 containing data from January 1 to December 1 1942 and the works of Colonel David M Glantz along with numerous secondary sources. All the images, illustrations, tactical symbols and maps were made by the author as a personal tribute to the veterans that served in those units.

Even the Terrible Things Seem Beautiful to Me Now Mary Schmich,2019-11-05 The best columns by the Pulitzer Prize winning Chicago Tribune writer on diverse topics like family loss, mental health, advice and the Windy City. Over the last two decades Mary Schmich's biweekly column in the Chicago Tribune has offered advice, humor and discerning commentary on a broad array of topics including family milestones, mental illness, writing and life in Chicago. Schmich won the 2012 Pulitzer for Commentary for her wide range of down-to-earth columns that reflect the character and capture the culture of her famed city. This second edition, updated to include Schmich's best pieces since its original publication, collects her ten Pulitzer-winning columns along with more than 150 others, creating a compelling collection that reflects Schmich's thoughtful and insightful sensibility. The book is divided into thirteen sections with topics focused on loss and survival, relationships, Chicago travel, holidays, reading and writing, and more. Schmich's 1997 'Wear Sunscreen' column, which has had a life of its own as a falsely attributed Kurt Vonnegut commencement speech, is included, as well as her columns focusing on the demolition of Chicago's infamous Cabrini-Green housing project. One of the most moving sections is her twelve-part series with U.S. District Judge Joan Lefkowitz as the latter reflected on rebuilding her life after the horrific murders of her mother and husband. Schmich's columns are both universal and deeply personal. The first section of this book is dedicated to columns about her mother and her stories of coping with her mother's aging and eventual death. Throughout the book, Schmich reflects wisely and wryly on the world we live in, and her fond observations of Chicago life bring the city in all its varied character to warm, vivid life.
