persistent and pervasive form of violence has been named and unnamed as a significant social problem in western countries over the past four decades Addressing what she calls the Man question so named because it pays attention to the discursive place occupied or more usually vacated by men in accounts of their violence against women she explores what happens when that violence is placed on the criminological and political agenda Written in a theoretically informed yet accessible style Sex Violence and Crime Foucault and the Man Question provides a novel and highly original approach to questions of sex and violence in contemporary western society Directed at criminologists students and more widely at anyone interested in these issues it challenges readers to come to grips with postmodern feminist reconceptualisations of the fraught relationship between sex violence and crime in order to better combat men s violence against women and children

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars

Evil Adam Morton, 2004 Evil has long fascinated psychologists philosophers novelists and playwrights but remains an incredibly difficult concept to talk about On Evil is a compelling and at times disturbing tour of the many faces of evil What is evil and what makes people do awful things If we can explain evil do we explain it away Can we imagine the mind of a serial killer or does such evil defy description Does evil depend on a contrast with good as religion tells us or can there be evil for evil's sake Adam Morton argues that any account of evil must help us understand three things why evil occurs why evil often arises out of banal or everyday situations and how we can be seen as evil Drawing on fascinating examples as diverse as Augustine Buffy the Vampire Slayer psychological studies of deviant behaviour and profiles of serial killers Adam Morton argues that evil occurs when internal mental barriers against it simply break down He also introduces us to some nightmare people such as Adolf Eichmann and Hannibal Lecter reminding us that understanding their actions as humans brings us closer to understanding evil Exciting and thought provoking On Evil is essential reading for anyone interested in a topic that attracts and repels us in equal measure
