Making Mortal Choices Hugo Adam Bedau,1997 Bedau demonstrates the usefulness of casuistry or the method of cases in arriving at moral decisions He examines well known cases that compel us to consider questions about who ought to survive when not all can and shows how we ought to reason Power of Persuasion Louis Blom-Cooper,2015-04-30 Over the years of the developing judicial review of ministerial and governmental decisions Louis Blom Cooper was a leading advocate who grew up with the advent of a distinctive brand of public law His range of public activities both in and outwith the courtroom saw him dubbed by his colleagues as a polymath practitioner It included chairmanship of plural public inquiries in child abuse and mental health media contributions in the broadsheet press and in broadcasting and innovation in penal reform as an ardent campaigner for the abolition of capital punishment and a plea for a modern Homicide Act He styled himself as a modern reconstructed liberal a man before his time This collection of essays is uniquely prefaced by a self examination of his unorthodox philosophy towards the law in action It covers a variety of socio legal topics that expresses his ambition to inform a poorly educated public on the workings of the legal system This aim involves a discussion of the constitutional history of Britain unwritten and insufficiently interpreted it reflects a commitment to the European Convention on Human Rights and portrays its international origins The collection opines on crime and punishment in the functioning of the courts and elsewhere the political shift from the penal optimism of the 1970s to the reactionary punitiveness of the post 1990s The essays conclude with a miscellany of affairs reflecting on professional practices and their product of judicial heroes in Lord Reid and Lord Bingham Encyclopedia of Ethics Lawrence C. Becker,Charlotte B. Becker,2013-10-18 The editors working with a team of 325 renowned authorities in the field of ethics have revised expanded and updated this classic encyclopedia Along with the addition of 150 new entries all of the original articles have been newly peer reviewed and revised bibliographies have been updated throughout and the overall design of the work has been enhanced for easier access to cross references and other reference features New entries include Cheating Dirty hands Gay ethics Holocaust Journalism Political correctness and many more Life, Death, and Subjectivity Stan van Hooft,2004-01-01 This book presents an exploration of concepts central to health care practice In exploring such concepts as Subjectivity Life Personhood and Death in deep philosophical terms the book aims to draw out the ethical demands that arise when we encounter these phenomena and also the moral resources of health care workers for meeting those demands The series Values in Bioethics makes available original philosophical books in all areas of bioethics including medical and nursing ethics health care ethics research ethics environmental ethics and global bioethics Worldly Politics and Divine Institutions Nahshon

Perez, 2023 Worldly Politics and Divine Institutions explores four instances of democratic governments becoming intertwined with religious matters when the U K Supreme Court forced a government funded faith school the British JFS School to change its admission policies when The European Court of Human Rights ruled that the Catholic Church could dismiss religion teachers in Spanish public schools when the Italian government upheld mandatory crucifixes in all public school classrooms and the Bladensburg World War I Memorial the Peace Cross case in Maryland where the U S Supreme Court ruled that the cross's public placement did not violate the U S Constitution's First Amendment

Shaping Women

Philosophers Sabrina Ebbersmeyer, 2025-10-30 This volume explores the shaping of women philosophers in early modern Europe by focusing on the emergence and formation of female intellectual identities In fifteen chapters experts in history of philosophy and related fields examine the discursive conditions that shaped women's participation in the learned world the intellectual domains that allowed women to express their thought the ways in which women created their own intellectual identities and how the representation of women philosophers in subsequent historiography reinforced women's marginalization Case studies stem from the late Renaissance up to the beginning of the 19th century ranging from Europe's South in Italy Spain and Portugal up to Northern Europe in Denmark and Sweden Contributors include Sabrina Ebbersmeyer Sarah Hutton Paola Rumore Corey W Dyck Carme Font Paz Anne Sophie Srup Wandall Jacqueline Broad Rosa Skytt Burr Elisabet G ransson Martin Fog Arndal Andrew Janiak Martina Reuter Matilda Amundsen Bergstr m and Eyja M J Brynjarsd

ttir Saint Cicero and the Jesuits Robert Aleksander Maryks, 2016-04-08 In this commanding study Dr Maryks offers a detailed analysis of early modern Jesuit confessional manuals to explore the order's shifting attitudes to confession and conscience Drawing on his census of Jesuit penitential literature published between 1554 and 1650 he traces in these works a subtly shifting theology influenced by both theology and classical humanism In particular the roles of Tutorism whereby an individual follows the law rather than the instinct of their own conscience and Probabilism which conversely gives priority to the individual's conscience are examined It is argued that for most of the sixteenth century books such as Juan Alfonso de Polanco's Directory for Confessors espousing a Tutorist line dominated the market for Jesuit confessional manuals until the seventeenth century by which time Probabilism had become the dominating force in Jesuit theology What caused this switch from Tutorism to Probabilism forms the central thesis of Dr Maryks' book He believes that as a direct result of the Jesuits' adoption of a new ministry of educating youth in the late 1540s Jesuit schoolmasters were compelled to engage with classical culture many aspects of which would have resonated with their own concepts of spirituality In particular Ciceronian humanitas and civiltas along with rhetorical principles of accommodation influenced Jesuit thinking in the revolutionary transition from medieval Tutorism to modern Probabilism By integrating concepts of theology classical humanism and publishing history this book offers a compelling account of how diverse forces could act upon a religious order to alter the central beliefs it held and promulgated This book is published in conjunction with the Jesuit Historical Institute series

Shook, 2005-01-01 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non-academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post-Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well-known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought Classical Utilitarianism from Hume to Mill Frederick Rosen, 2005-06-28 This book presents a new interpretation of the principle of utility in moral and political theory based on the writings of the classical utilitarians from Hume to J. S. Mill Discussion of utility in writers such as Adam Smith William Paley and Jeremy Bentham is included Reluctant Justice Carl Ceulemans, 2005 Killing as Punishment Hugo Adam Bedau, 2004-03-11 Hugo Bedau has commanded a long and distinguished career as one of the most widely respected opponents of capital punishment His work has addressed a variety of perspectives in the death penalty debate from execution of the innocent to the philosophical and moral grounds for abolition Now his essays from the last fifteen years appear together in one volume More than simply a collection of previously published articles Killing as Punishment represents a unified interdisciplinary inquiry into several of the major empirical and normative issues raised by the death penalty The essays have been revised and updated to survey the current state of the death penalty against the background of the past half century and are divided along two major axes one detailing a range of facts raised by the controversy over capital punishment the other presenting a critical evaluation of the subject from a constitutional and ethical point of view Drawing on his encyclopedic knowledge of the field Bedau addresses topics that include strong public support for the death penalty wrongful convictions in capital cases the disappearance of executive clemency constitutional arguments surrounding it The Absolute Violation Richard S. Matthews, 2008-07-24 Richard Matthews challenges the increasing acceptability of state-sponsored torture interrogating and repudiating any possible

justifications He confronts its various supporters ticking time bomb and tragic choice theorists utilitarians legal scholars and draws from philosophy medicine psychiatry survivor and torturer narratives history feminism the experience of working intelligence officials anthropology and game theory to illustrate that no moral justification for torture can be supported

Developing a Virtue-Imbued Casuistry for Business Ethics Martin Calkins, 2014-05-08 Casuistry Virtue and Business Ethics brings together three important processes for business ethics casuistry virtue ethics and the business case method In doing so it considers the overlap and synergy of casuistry and virtue ethics the similarities and differences of casuistry and the business case method and the relationships between emerging and well established cases The goal of the book is twofold to provide a distinctly practical method for moral decision making within the context of business and to illustrate how contemporary vexing issues are similar to those of the past and how they might be resolved satisfactorily

The Top Books of the Year Making Mortal Choices Three Exercises In Moral Casuistry The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Making Mortal Choices Three Exercises In Moral Casuistry : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Making Mortal Choices Three Exercises In Moral Casuistry : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
