

PATTERN MAKING

The image is a composite graphic. On the right side, a white 3D model of a sailor collar is shown, featuring a wide, flat collar with a rounded, padded lapel. To the left of the collar, a grey paper pattern piece is visible, showing various curved lines and a grid of dots, typical of a technical sewing pattern. In the background, a white mannequin torso is partially visible, wearing a garment with a similar collar style. The overall composition is set against a black background.
