Making Of Nagorno Karabagh From Secession To Republic:

The Making of Nagorno-Karabagh Levon Chorbajian, 2001-08-08 The first major territorial struggle in the late Soviet period involved Nagorno Karabagh an Armenian inhabited territory that had been assigned to the Azerbaijan Soviet Socialist Republic In the early 1920s Armenian protests calling for reunification with Armenia in 1988 led to Azerbaijani pogroms against Armenians and later to armed conflict that claimed over twenty thousand lives The struggle remains unresolved A distinguished group of historians and social scientists analyze the Karabagh struggle in this unique volume that covers one of the world s strategic oil rich regions

Nagorno-Karabakh T. J. Petrowski, 2022-09-08 The Azerbaijani attack on the de facto independent Republic of Artsakh formerly the Nagorno Karabakh Republic in September 2020 shattered the illusion that this conflict is frozen The forty four day war in 2020 was the bloodiest outbreak of violence over the separatist region since the conflict began in the late 1980s and threatened to embroil Turkey and Russia in a dangerous proxy war in the volatile South Caucasus Despite the publication of several works on the conflict since the 1990s many aspects of the conflict remain poorly understood or distorted in Western scholarship due to US NATO political influence Are the origins of the conflict found in Soviet nationalities policy and Joseph Stalin s divide and rule methods Do the Armenians in Artsakh have a right to self determination as enshrined in treaty and customary international law What role do Russia and Turkey have in the conflict Did Kosovo s 2008 declaration of independence establish a precedent for Artsakh and other separatist states such as Abkhazia and South Ossetia By breaking with the dominant US NATO political paradigm this book strives to answer these and many other questions to provide a long overdue reassessment of the Armenian Azerbaijani Conflict

Secessionist Entities and International Law Benedikt C. Harzl, 2025-03-20 This book examines secessionist entities that arose during and after the dissolution process of the USSR and considers them as legal subjects in their own right By employing a novel and more innovative approach the agency of these subjects otherwise often ignored or disregarded is taken into account Drawing on the cases of the South Caucasus the author suggests going beyond the binary concept of statehood and traditional notions of sovereignty He advocates embracing an inclusive reading of international law which enables to foster creative ambiguity vis vis these entities as means of conflict transformation

The History of Armenia S. Payaslian, 2008-03-13 There is a great deal of interest in the history of Armenia since its renewed independence in the 1990s and the ongoing debate about the genocide an interest that informs the strong desire of a new generation of Armenian Americans to learn more about their heritage and has led to greater solidarity in the community By integrating themes such as war geopolitics and great leaders with the less familiar cultural themes and personal stories this book will appeal to general readers and travellers interested in the region

Music Making Community Tony Perman, Stefan Fiol, 2024-05-21 Making music offers enormous possibilities and faces significant limitations in its power to generate belonging and advance social justice Tony Perman and Stefan Fiol edit essays focused on the forms of interplay between music making and community making as mutually creative processes Contributors in the first section look at cases where music arrived in settings with little or no sense of community and formed social bonds that lasted beyond its departure In the sections that follow the essayists turn to stable communities that used musical forms to address social needs and both forged new social groups and in some cases splintered established communities By centering the value of difference in productive feedback dynamics of music and community while asserting the need for mutual moral indebtedness they foreground music s potential to transform community for the better Contributors Stephen Blum Joanna Bosse Sylvia Bruinders Donna A Buchanan Rick Deja Veit Erlmann Stefan Fiol Eduardo Herrera David A McDonald Tony Perman Thomas Solomon and Ioannis Tsekouras After the Soviet Empire , 2015-10-05 The break up of the Soviet Union is a key event of the twentieth century The 39th IIS congress in Yerevan 2009 focused on causes and consequences of this event and on shifts in the world order that followed in its wake This volume is an effort to chart these developments in empirical and conceptual terms It has a focus on the lands of the former Soviet Union but also explores pathways and contexts in the Second World at large The Soviet Union was a full scale experiment in creating an alternative modernity The implosion of this union gave rise to new states in search of national identity At a time when some observers heralded the end of history there was a rediscovery of historical legacies and a search for new paths of development across the former Second World In some parts of this world long repressed legacies were rediscovered They were sometimes as in the case of countries in East Central Europe built around memories of parliamentary democracy and its replacement by authoritarian rule during the interwar period Some legacies referred to efforts at establishing statehood in the wake of the First World War others to national upheavals in the nineteenth century and earlier In Central Asia and many parts of the Caucasus the cultural heritage of Islam in its different varieties gave rise to new markers of identity but also to violent contestations In South Caucasus Georgia Armenia and Azerbaijan have embarked upon distinctly different but invariably contingent paths of development Analogously core components of the old union have gone through tumultuous but until the last year and a half largely bloodless transformations The crystallization of divergent paths of development in the two largest republics of that union i e Russia and Ukraine has ushered in divergent national imaginations but also in series of bloody confrontations

Self-Determination and Secession in International Law Christian Walter, Antje von Ungern-Sternberg, Kavus Abushov, 2014-06-05 Peoples and minorities in many parts of the world assert a right to self determination autonomy and even secession from a state which naturally conflicts with that state's sovereignty and territorial integrity The right of a people to self determination and secession has existed as a concept within international law since the American Declaration of Independence in 1776 but the exact definition of these concepts and the conditions required for their application remain unclear The Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice concerning the Declaration of Independency of Kosovo 2010 which held that the Kosovo declaration of independence was not in violation of international law has only led to further questions This book takes four conflicts in the post Soviet Commonwealth of Independent States CIS as a starting point for examining the current state of the law of self determination and secession Four entities Transnistria Moldova South Ossetia Abkhazia both Georgia and Nagorno Karabakh Azerbaijan claim to be entitled not only to self determination but also to secession from their mother state For this entitlement they rely on historic affiliations and on charges of discrimination and massive human rights violations committed by their mother state This book sets out its analysis of these critical issue in three parts providing a detailed understanding of the principles of international law on which they rely The first part sets out the contours and meaning of self determination and secession including an overall assessment of secession within the Commonwealth of Independent States The second section provides case studies investigating the events in Transnistria South Ossetia Abkhazia and Nagorno Karabach in greater detail The third and final section extends the scope of the examination providing a comparative analysis of similar conflicts involving questions of self determination and secession in Kosovo Western Sahara and Eritrea
