Making Journalists:

Making Journalists Hugo de Burgh, 2006-03-13 At a time when the media's relation to power is at the forefront of political discussion this book considers how journalists can affect public discourse on politics economy and society at large From well known and respected authors providing all new material Making Journalists considers journalism education training practice and professionalism across a wide range of countries including Saudi Arabia Africa India USA and the UK The book offers insights into what journalism is how education makes the journalist and therefore the news models of journalism taught and practised across the globe the ethical implications of the process When news reporting can lead to decisions on whether or not to go to war everything can be affected by journalists and their mediation of the world This text brings these present issues together in one invaluable resource for all students of journalism politics and media studies

Making Journalists Hugo de Burgh, 2005 Journalism is a powerful agent of change political social and economic This book compiles chapters by renowned field authors and charts this power across parts of the world as diverse as China Latin America and Africa The Making of a Journalist Julian Ralph, 1903 The Ethical Journalist Gene Foreman, 2015-05-18 This new edition of a well regarded student friendly textbook for journalism ethics has been extensively revised and updated to meet the needs of the 21st century journalist working in the digital age Educates aspiring journalists on ethical decision making with coverage of key applied issues such as the principles of fairness and accuracy the duty of verification the role of social media the problems of plagiarism fabrication and conflicts of interest business issues that affect journalism ethics and questions relating to source relationships privacy and deception in reporting Includes extensive revisions to the majority of chapters as well as six new Point of View essays eight new case studies and a full glossary Brings together the authoritative engaging voice of a veteran journalist the viewpoints of distinguished scholars and print broadcast and digital practitioners and insights from complex real world case studies Supplemented by an annually updated companion website with resources for teachers and students including links to current articles discussing the subjects covered in each of the book's chapters and a teachers guide that offers sample syllabi discussion guides PowerPoint slides sample quiz and exam questions and links to audiovisual material The Journalist in the Making, 1925 Poland's Journalists Jane Leftwich Curry, 1990-02-22 Originally published in 1990 Polish Journalists Professionalism and Politics is a study of how in the face of constant political instructions and restrictions Polish journalists act as independent forces in their society The Kidnapping of Journalists Robert G. Picard, Hannah Storm, 2016-03-22 The vulnerability of journalists to kidnappings was starkly illustrated by the killing of James Foley and Steven Sotloff by Islamic militants in 2014 Their murder underscored the risks taken by journalists and news organisations trying to cover developments in dangerous regions of the world and has forced news enterprises to more clearly prepare for and confront issues of safety This book explores the complex organisational issues surrounding the capture or kidnapping of journalists in areas of conflict and risk It explores how journalists becoming news is covered and the implications of that coverage how news organisations prepare for and respond to such events and how kidnapping and ransom insurers victim recovery firms journalists families and governments influence the actions of news enterprises It considers how and why journalists are kidnapped how employers and journalists organisations respond to kidnappings and why freelancers are particularly at risk as well as suggesting best practices for preventing and responding to kidnappings

The Global Journalist in the 21st Century David H. Weaver, Lars Willnat, 2020-10-25 The Global Journalist in the 21st Century systematically assesses the demographics education socialization professional attitudes and working conditions of journalists in various countries around the world This book updates the original Global Journalist 1998 volume with new data adding more than a dozen countries and provides material on comparative research about journalists that will be useful to those interested in doing their own studies The editors put together this collection working under the assumption that journalists backgrounds working conditions and ideas are related to what is reported and how it is covered in the various news media round the world in spite of societal and organizational constraints and that this news coverage matters in terms of world public opinion and policies Outstanding features include Coverage of 33 nations located around the globe based on recent surveys conducted among representative samples of local journalists Comprehensive analyses by well known media scholars from each country A section on comparative studies of journalists An appendix with a collection of survey questions used in various nations to question journalists As the most comprehensive and reliable source on journalists around the world The Global Journalist will serve as the primary source for evaluating the state of journalism As such it promises to become a standard reference among journalism media and communication students and researchers around the world Journalist Safety and Self-Censorship Anna Grøndahl Larsen, Ingrid Fadnes, Roy Krøvel, 2020-07-08 This book explores the relationship between the safety of journalists and self censorship practices around the world including local case studies and regional and international perspectives Bringing together scholars and practitioners from around the globe Journalist Safety and Self Censorship provides new and updated insights into patterns of self censorship and free speech focusing on a variety of factors that affect these issues including surveillance legislation threats violent conflict gender related stereotypes digitisation and social media The contributions examine topics such as trauma risk and self censorship among journalists in different regions of the world including Central America Estonia Turkey Uganda and Pakistan The book also provides conceptual clarity to the notion of journalist self censorship and explores the question of how self censorship may be studied empirically Combining both theoretical and practical knowledge this collection serves as a much needed resource for any academic student of journalism practicing journalist or NGO working on issues of journalism safety free speech and censorship Journalism Ethics Goes to the Movies Howard Good, 2008 Journalism Ethics Goes to the Movies poses urgent questions about journalism ethics and offers candid answers As the title suggests the authors some of the nation s leading journalism scholars investigate popular movies to illustrate the kind of ethical dilemmas journalists Rationalist Bias in

Communication Theory Shedletsky, Leonard, 2021-06-04 While communication theory has not recognized the implications of the social intuitionist model psychologists have gathered an impressive body of evidence to support the theory In social cognition research there was the idea that human inferential processes are conscious rational logical and accurate and this belief continues somewhat in the behavioral sciences although there is evidence that it is incorrect A fresh examination is needed on just how these inferences by the receiver and the implications by the sender carried out at high speed impact our understanding of the communication process Simply put until now the default case in communication theory is the belief that we consciously reason and then we act However that may not be entirely true Rationalist Bias in Communication Theory applies social intuition theory to human communication This book explores how research has missed accounting for a critical fact about human communication in the theories of communication namely that we as humans can respond to one another and to all kinds of stimuli faster than we can deliberate By applying intuitive cognition to communication a new light can be shed on the communication process which is what the chapters prove and discuss This book is valuable for social scientists practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in new theories in communication theory
