Making Of A Nation:

American History James Alton James, Albert Hart Sanford, 1912 Materializing the Nation Robert J. Foster, 2002-10-24 Foster shows us how seemingly banal activities like making a phone call chewing betel nut watching a Coke commercial may give important insights into the ways in which the nation is constructed materialized or contested

Orvar L fgren author of On Holiday A History of Vacationing Why in the current era of globalization does nationality remain an important dimension of personal and collective identities In Materializing the Nation Robert J Foster argues that the contested process of nation making in Papua New Guinea unfolds not only through organized politics but also through mundane engagements with commodities and mass media He offers a thoughtful critique of recent approaches to nationalism and consumption and an ethnographic perspective on constructs of the nation found in official policy documents letters to the editor school textbooks song lyrics advertisements and other materials This volume will appeal to readers interested in the links among nationalism consumption and media in Melanesia and elsewhere Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States. Patent Office, 1906 Nations, Markets, and War Nicholas Greenwood Onuf, Peter S. Onuf, 2006 The limits of history Liberal society Civilized nations Moral persons Nation making Adam Smith moral historian National destinies War and peace in the New World The North and the nation The South and the nation Nigeria and the Politics of Survival as a Nation-state E. Ike Udogu, 1997 This volume addresses the struggles and strategies applied by the civilian and military administrations to resolve the issue of political instability in Nigeria It examines its political history as an entity before Britain colonized the area and the constitutional developments since 1914 when Britain amalgamated the northern and southern regions to form modern Nigeria The Making of a Nation Ravinder Kumar, 1989 Men of Capital Sherene Seikaly, 2023-05-25 An eye opening book on the history of an elite Palestinian Arab group an important contribution and a highly recommended read Middle East Journal Men of Capital examines British ruled Palestine in the 1930s and 1940s through a focus on economy In a departure from the expected histories of Palestine this book illuminates dynamic class constructions that aimed to shape a pan Arab utopia in terms of free trade profit accumulation and private property And in so doing it positions Palestine and Palestinians in the larger world of Arab thought and social life moving attention away from the limiting debates of Zionist Palestinian conflict Reading Palestinian business periodicals records and correspondence Sherene Seikaly reveals how capital accumulation was central to the conception of the ideal social man Here we meet a diverse set of characters the man of capital the frugal wife the law abiding Bedouin the unemployed youth and the abundant farmer in new spaces like the black market cafes and cinemas and the idyllic Arab home Seikaly also traces how British colonial institutions and policies regulated wartime austerity regimes mapping the shortages of basic goods such as the vegetable crisis of 1940 to the broader material disparities among Palestinians and European Jews Ultimately she shows that the economic is as central to social management as the political and that an exclusive focus on national claims and conflicts hides the more complex changes of social life in Palestine History Teacher's Magazine ,1910 Municipal Engineering ,1918 Workers of the Nation Gilson Willets,1903 The Sabbath Recorder ,1918 Dry Goods Guide ,1916 The Routledge Handbook of Refugees in India S. Irudaya Rajan,2022-03-10 This handbook marks a key intervention in refugee studies in India home to diverse groups of refugees including an entire government in exile It unravels the various socio economic political and cultural dimensions of refugee issues in India The volume examines the various legal political and policy frameworks for accommodating refugees or asylum seekers in India including the Citizenship Amendment Act and the National Registry of Citizens It evaluates the lack of uniformity in the Indian legal and political framework to deal with its refugee population and analyzes the grounds of inclusion or exclusion for different groups Drawing from the experiences of Jewish Tibetan Pakistani Bangladeshi Sri Lankan Afghan and Rohingya refugees in India it analyzes debates around marginalization citizenship and refugee rights It also explores the spatial and gendered dimensions of forced migration and the cultural and social lives of displaced communities including their quest for decent work education and health The volume will be an indispensable reference for scholars lawyers researchers and students of refugee studies migration and diaspora studies public policy social policy and development studies The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice Masood Ashraf Raja,Nick T. C. Lu,2023-11-20 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Social Justice is a comprehensive and multi purpose collection on this important topic With contributors working in various fields the Companion provides in depth analyses of both the cumulative and emergent issues obstacles praxes propositions and theories of social justice The first section offers a historical overview of major developments and debates in the field while the following sections look in more detail at the key traditions and show how literature and theory can be applied as analytical tools to real world inequalities and the impact of doing so The contributors provide reviews of major theoretical traditions including Marxism feminism Critical Race Theory disability studies and queer studies They also share literary analyses of influential authors including W E B Du Bois Yang Kui Edwidge Danticat Octavia Butler and Rivers Solomon amongst others The final section considers future possibilities for theory and action of justice drawing specifically from theories and knowledges in decolonial Indigenous environmental and posthumanist studies This authoritative volume draws on the intersections between literary studies and social movements in order to provide scholars students and activists alike with a complete collection of the most up to date information on both canonical and emerging texts and case studies globally

The Japan Financial and Economic Monthly ,1922 A United Nations for the Twenty-First Century Dimitris Bourantonis,Marios Evriviades,2023-09-14 This collective work brings together scholars international civil servants and field practitioners who examine a wide range of theoretical and practical problems as well as challenges confronting the world and the United Nations at the dawn of the twenty first century The papers in this volume have been organized under themes which focus on problem areas and challenges that mankind must unavoidably deal with collectively in the years ahead much as it has attempted to do during the past half century The contributors address the triangular relationship between peace security and development and raise questions about the relevance of the UN system in the decades to come The authors do so through reflection on past experiences and relevant philosophical inquiries They examine specific cases and experiences that are representative of the relevance or irrelevance of past collective actions in the security and non security fields and suggest new ideas and concepts that attempt to marry theory and practice In this connection aspects of peacemaking and peacekeeping arms control economic development human rights and the critical role of education are amongst the topics analyzed and assessed One of the underlying themes of the volume is that the challenges of the twenty first century will be of unprecedented magnitude Unless the UN system is reformed and revitalized it runs the risk of becoming irrelevant

Cultural Practices, Political Possibilities Rohee Dasgupta,2009-03-26 Culture has long been regarded as one of the most complicated concepts in the social sciences possibly over theorized Its ubiquity tangled senses of particularity and the almost universal recognition of that assumed particularity require an extended vocabulary for framing the politics embedded in it Cultural Practices Political Possibilities attempts to explain the political significance and overlaps of cultural constructions as witnessed in global local clashes convergences of texts and contexts within the state and community identity and the self Through various case studies concepts and interdisciplinary perspectives the multinational group of authors from diverse academic backgrounds interprets cultural constructions of politics as factionalizing identitarian situational and particularistic in their links affirmations and consequential divides Each contribution in its unique way explores the performative asymmetries and contradictions witnessed in diverse cultural interactions that shape new areas of political investigation The book will be welcomed by students of international relations environmental politics sociology anthropology and cultural studies
