Martin,2018-03-05 What are the religious impulses in the 1976 film Rocky and how can they work to shape one s social identity Do the films Alien and Aliens signify the reemergence of the earth goddess as a vital cultural power What female archetypes borne out of male desire inform the experience of women in Nine and a Half Weeks These are among the several compelling questions the authors of this volume consider as they explore the way popular American film relates to religion Oddly religion and film two pervasive elements of American culture have seldom been studied in connection with each other In this first systematic exploration the authors look beyond surface religious themes and imagery in film discovering a deeper implicit presence of religion They employ theological mythological and social and political criticism to analyze the influence of religion in all its rich variety and diversity on popular film Perhaps more importantly they consider how the medium of film has helped influence and shape American religious culture secular or otherwise More than a random collection of essays this volume brings to the study of religion and film a carefully constructed analytic framework that advances our understanding of both Screening the Sacred provides fresh and welcome insight to film criticism it also holds far reaching relevance for the study of religion Progressive in its approach instructive in its analyses this book is written for students scholars and other readers interested in religion popular film and the impact of each on American culture Masterplots Frank Northen Magill, Laurence W. mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disunitive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence
