Making Of The Poets:

Melville Hershel Parker, 2008 Revealed here is an unknown Melville the autodidact who made himself a poet and who brilliantly constructed a personal aesthetic credo Dispelling baseless claims that Melville had a quarrel with fiction after Moby Dick or Pierre and that he did not in 1860 complete a book he called Poems Parker offers new evidence of the full trajectory of Melville's career in all its glory and frustration BOOK JACKET Plato and the Poets Pierre

Destrée, Fritz-Gregor Herrmann, 2011-03-21 The nineteen essays presented here aim to illuminate the ways poetry and the poets are discussed by Plato throughout his writing career As well as throwing new light on old topics such as mimesis and poetic inspiration the volume introduces fresh approaches to Plato's philosophy of poetry and literature Poetry and Poets Amy Lowell, 1971 Lofty Dogmas: Poets on Poetry (p), 2005 Compiled by three noted poets this is an eclectic stimulating and informed selection of poets remarks on poetry spanning eras ethnicities and aesthetics The 102 selections from nearly as many poets reach back to the Greeks and Romans then draw on Chaucer Shakespeare Sidney and Milton on to Shelley Keats Coleridge and Poe then Hopkins Yeats Eliot Rilke and Pound concluding with many of our contemporaries including Hall Clifton Mackey Kunitz and Rukeyser The book is divided into three sections Musing concerns issues of inspiration Making issues of craft from diction to meter to persona and voice and Mapping the role of poetry and the poet Headnotes at the beginning of each selection provide background information about the poet and commentary on the significance of the selection There is also a useful appendix with a listing of essays arranged according to more specific topics As the poets write in their introduction This book was intended to deepen readers understanding of age old poetic ideas while at the same time pointing out new directions for thinking about poetry juxtaposing the familiar and the strange reconfiguring old boundaries and shaking up stereotypes Chinese Theories of Reading and Writing Ming Dong

Gu, 2012-02-01 This ambitious work provides a systematic study of Chinese theories of reading and writing in intellectual thought and critical practice The author maintains that there are two major hermeneutic traditions in Chinese literature the politico moralistic mainstream and the metaphysico aesthetic undercurrent In exploring the interaction between the two Ming Dong Gu finds a movement toward interpretive openness In this the Chinese practice anticipates modern and Western theories of interpretation especially literary openness and open poetics Classic Chinese works are examined including the Zhouyi the I Ching or Book of Changes the Shijing the Book of Songs or Book of Poetry and selected poetry along with the philosophical background of the hermeneutic theories Ultimately Gu relates the Chinese practices of reading to Western hermeneutics offering a cross cultural conceptual model for the comparative study of reading and writing in general

29 new essays from nearly 50 contributors from across the United States presents a variety of projects programs and services to help librarians establish relationships with the literary world promote literature to the public and foster creativity in their communities Celebrating Poetry Across the K-12 Curriculum Napoli, Mary,Day, Deanna,Ward, Barbara A.,2025-07-16 Poetry provides opportunities to explore the universal and common experiences that connect us as human beings When teachers infuse poetry into their classroom it can foster compassion develop interdisciplinary connections and support literacy instruction However not all teachers use poetry in their classroom either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry Given the importance of sharing poetry with today s youth educators must feel confident in evaluating well written poetry and how to weave poetry from award winning poets to support interdisciplinary connections Celebrating Poetry Across the K 12 Curriculum aims to ensure that poetry for children is not neglected as part of the curriculum and to help educators feel more confident in their understanding of children s poetry its relevance to children s lives and its importance to supporting pedagogical connections Featuring interviews with well known poets this resource also showcases the latest pedagogical and scholarly research supporting the integration of poetry in the K 12 classroom Covering topics such as science content romanticism and diversity recognition this book is an excellent resource for educators classroom teachers literacy specialists librarians professionals researchers scholar academicians and more The Common Asphodel Robert Graves,1970 A collection of essays by the author of The White Goddess linked together by some common assumptions regarding the nature of poetry The title of the book according to the writer is shorthand for saying that the popular view of what poetry is or ought to be has for centuries been based on sentimental misapprehensions The Rift in the Lute Maximilian De Gaynesford,2017 What is it for poetry to be serious and to be taken seriously What is it to be open to poetry attuned to what it says alive to what it does These questions call equally on poetry and philosophy but poetry and philosophy have an ancient quarrel Maximilian de Gaynesford converts their mutual antipathy into something mutually enhancing Behind the Lines Philip Metres,2007-05 Whether Thersites in Homer s Iliad Wilfred Owen in Dulce et Decorum Est or Allen Ginsberg in Wichita Vortex Sutra poets have long given solitary voice against the brutality of war The hasty cancellation of the 2003 White House symposium Poetry and the American Voice in the face of protests by Sam Hamill and other invited guests against the coming shock and awe campaign in Iraq reminded us that poetry and poets still have the power to challenge the powerful Behind the Lines investigates American war resistance poetry from the Second World War through the Iraq wars Rather than simply chronicling the genre Philip Metres argues that this poetry gets to the heart of who is authorized to speak about war and how it can be represented As such he explores a largely neglected area of scholarship the poet s relationship to dissenting political movements and the nation In his elegant study Metres examines the ways in which war resistance is registered not only in terms of its content but also at the level of the lyric He proposes that protest poetry constitutes a subgenre that by virtue of its preoccupation with politics history and trauma probes the limits of American lyric poetry Thus war resistance poetry and the role of what Shelley calls unacknowledged legislators is a crucial though largely unexamined body of writing that stands at the center of dissident political movements

Lyric Poetry Mutlu Blasing,2009-01-10 Lyric poetry has long been regarded as the intensely private emotional expression of individuals powerful precisely because it draws readers into personal worlds But who exactly is the I in a lyric poem and how is it created In Lyric Poetry Mutlu Blasing argues that the individual in a lyric is only a virtual entity and that lyric poetry takes its power from the public emotional power of language itself In the first major new theory of the lyric to be put forward in decades Blasing proposes that lyric poetry is a public discourse deeply rooted in the mother tongue She looks to poetic linguistic and psychoanalytic theory to help unravel the intricate historical processes that generate speaking subjects and concludes that lyric forms convey both personal and communal emotional histories in language Focusing on the work of such diverse twentieth century American poets as T S Eliot Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens and Anne Sexton Blasing demonstrates the ways that the lyric I speaks from first to last as a creation of poetic language brought about by downsizings following the crash of 2008 from which literary studies never really recovered compounded by the Covid pandemic and rocked by the bedrock questions put to the academic study of literature by the Black Lives Matter protests This chapter also looks at why theory matters in the present as an introduction to modes of questioning and ways of life which the author opposes to the English department's understanding of literature as a series of disciplinary objects to be understood or appreciated The second chapter is a specific exploration of the novel the current reigning form of literature and literary study in both popular and academic contexts and the novel's relation to the present of new materialism and the past the European history of the novel as the official form for warehousing bourgeois subjective experience If new materialism including anti racist critiques questions the world view of bourgeois Eurocentric humanism it also brings into question the centrality of that world view's primary artistic form the novel
