C. Loudon, 1844 Hortus Lignosus Londinensis John Claudius Loudon, 1838 Twenty-Four Unusual Stories For Boys And Girls Anna Cogswell Tyler, 2023-09-30 ONCE when the Emperor Charles V was traveling in the country he saw a convent and in passing by a little door he read this strange inscription Here you live without a care The Emperor was very surprised and could scarcely believe his eyes It seems to me an impossibility he thought does some one really exist on earth who is free from care As Emperor I am overwhelmed with troubles while here in this convent which is a little kingdom in itself one would have nothing to worry about I cannot believe it Immediately on setting foot in the village inn the Emperor sent the hostess to fetch the Abbot of this singular convent You can imagine what a state of mind the latter was in when he heard he was summoned to the Emperor s presence What have I done to displease him he asked himself On the way he examined his conscience over and over again and he could think of no fault of which he was guilty I am in troubled waters I must steer my way through he said When he was in the Emperor s presence the latter expressed his astonishment of what he had read The Abbot now knew why he had been summoned and smiled Sir said he does that astonish you However it is very simple we eat we drink we sleep and worry over nothing Well Reverend Abbot that state of things must come to an end said the Emperor and in order that you may have your share of trouble I command you to bring me to morrow the answers to the three following questions First What is the depth of the sea Secondly How many cows tails would it take to measure the distance between the earth and the sun
