Ritual Healing in Suburban America Meredith B. McGuire,Debra Kantor,1988 Many Americans believe that people who practice folk healing are uneducated and too poor to afford conventional medical care Contrary to this popular belief Meredith McGuire finds that a large number of college educated middle class suburbanites participate in a variety of nonmedical healing groups In suburban New Jersey people practice such diverse alternatives as psychic healing New Age therapies naturopathy Christian Science Transcendental Meditation reflexology acupuncture yoga Jain meditation Therapeutic Touch reflexology shiatsu rebirthing and occult therapies McGuire places these various healing groups into broader categories according to their traditional sources of inspiration and their beliefs about healing power She then looks at the participants diverse ideas about health and illness By locating alternative healing in the context of these beliefs she shows the many ways the adherents experience ritual healing From publisher s description Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991
