Modernists Matisse To De Segonzac:

The Modernists Charles Kunstler, 1931 Modern French Painting Adolphe Basler, Charles Kunstler, 1931 Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22

The essays in this wide ranging beautifully illustrated volume capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of recent criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art. Readers are invited to consider the profound issues and penetrating questions that lie beneath this perennially popular body of work as the contributors examine the art world of late nineteenth century France including detailed looks at Monet, Manet, Pissarro, Degas, Cézanne, Morisot, Seurat, Van Gogh and Gauguin. The authors offer fascinating new perspectives placing the artworks from this period in wider social and historical contexts. They explore these painters' pictorial and market strategies, the critical reception and modern criteria, the paintings engendered and the movement's historic role in the formation of an avant garde tradition. Their research reflects the wealth of new documents, critical approaches and scholarly exhibitions that have fundamentally altered our understanding of Impressionism and Post Impressionism. These essays, several of which have previously been familiar only to scholars, provide instructive models of in depth critical analysis and of the competing art historical methods that have crucially reshaped the field.

Les Fauves Russell T. Clement, 1994-05-25

This is the first comprehensive scholarly bibliography, research guide, sourcebook on the major French Fauve painters. Henri Matisse and Georges Braque are treated in separate Greenwood bio bibliographies. It includes information on 3120 books and articles as well as chronologies, biographical sketches and exhibition lists. Each artist receives a primary and secondary bibliography with many annotated entries. Secondary bibliographies include details about each artist's life and career, relationships with other artists, work in various media, iconography and more. Designed for art historians, art students, museum and gallery curators and art lovers alike, this volume organizes the vast literature surrounding this fascinating revolutionary 20th century art group. Genuinely new art is always challenging, sometimes even shocking to those unprepared for it. In 1905 the paintings of Matisse, Derain, Vlaminck and their friends shocked conservative museum goers, hence the eventual popularity of art critic Louis Vauxcelles's tag, les fauves or wild beasts, by which these artists became known. Although it lasted only three or four years, Fauvism is recognized as the first artistic revolution of international consequence in the 20th century. It was based on the glorification of pure saturated colors and the free expression of primitivism. It was a dynamic sensualism, an equilibrium of passion and order, fire and austerity that could not last. By the end of 1908 Fauvism collapsed in the face of Cubism, which moreover several Fauve artists helped to form.
