Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union Eleonora Rosati, 2023-10-06 First released in early 2019 Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union remains the only book exclusively devoted to the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union CJEU in the EU copyright field Fully updated for the new edition the book explains the Court's role and action in the field of EU copyright law and provides readers with a sense of the direction of the Court's jurisprudence through an exercise of tidying up and rationalizing the rulings issued so far In his foreword to the first edition First Advocate General Maciej Szpunar praised the book's profound analysis of the EU copyright protection and CJEU decisions which in his view unveiled new information perhaps never considered even by members of the Court The new edition captures all the significant developments in EU copyright law that have occurred since 2019 Aside from macro events such as the UK's now completed departure from the EU and the adoption of the Digital Single Market Directive 2019/790 seminal judgments have been issued by the CJEU which touch upon all the main foundational aspects of EU copyright This book is structured in three parts The first part is about the role of the CJEU as an EU institution Following a discussion of the impact of CJEU interpretation of EU copyright provisions notably their pre-emptive effect on individual EU Member States freedom the second part is concerned with CJEU action and vision in respect of four key areas of copyright and related rights the requirements for protection construction of exclusive rights exceptions and limitations and enforcement The final part focuses on the legacy of CJEU case law broadly intended having regard to both individual countries copyright laws specifically the UK and recent EU copyright reform discourse notably in the context of the DSM Directive Timely and engaging Copyright and the Court of Justice of the European Union provides novel insights into the activity of the CJEU in the copyright field and reflects on the resulting implications for the present and future of EU copyright general there is the potential for duplication between the Agency and the proposed European Institute for Gender Equality Chapter 4 discusses whether there is a need for two separate bodies or whether the Fundamental Rights Agency should be responsible for all fundamental rights and discrimination matters including gender issues Finally the Committee considers whether the Agency will be sufficiently independent from the Commission and the Council and makes recommendations as to the composition of the Agency's management and executive board
