New Essays On Winesburg Ohio:

New Essays on Winesburg, Ohio John W. Crowley, 1990-10-26 Sixty years after its first publication Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg, Ohio continues to stand as a classic of modernist American fiction. In original new essays by David H. Stouck, Marcia Jacobson, Clare E. Colquitt, and Thomas Yingling, Winesburg is reconsidered in the contexts of the expressionist movement, the American boy book tradition, the work of Sarah Orne Jewett, and the rise of industrial capitalism. An introduction by John W. Crowley reviews the career of Sherwood Anderson and his assimilation into the literary canon.

New Essays on Winesburg, Ohio, 1990 New Essays on Winesburg, Ohio John W. Crowley, John William Crowley, 1990 A New Book of the Grotesques Robert Dunne, 2005 Sherwood Anderson, remembered chiefly as a writer of short stories about life in the Midwest at the turn of the century, was acknowledged as an innovator of the short story form. This book looks at Anderson's early fiction from contemporary interpretative methodologies, particularly from poststructuralist approaches. The Working Class in American Literature John F. Lavelle, Debbie Lelekis, 2021-09-21 Literary texts are artifacts of their time and ideologies. This book collection explores the working class in American literature from the colonial to the contemporary period through a critical lens which addresses the real problems of approaching class through economics. Significantly, this book moves the analysis of working class literature away from the Marxist focus on the relationship between class and the means of production and applies an innovative concept of class based on the sociological studies of humans and society first championed by Max Weber. Of primary concern is the construction of class separation through the concept of in-grouping/out-grouping. This book builds upon the theories established in John F. Lavelle's Blue Collar: Theoretically A Post Marxist Approach to Working Class Literature (McFarland, 2011) and puts them into practice by examining a diverse set of texts that reveal the complexity of class relations in American society. A Study of Place in Short Fiction by James Joyce, William Faulkner and Sherwood Anderson Abd Alkareem Atteh, 2021-04-15 This book sheds light on the modernist short story cycle and its pivotal role in representing and depicting place. With an ever-changing attitude towards place and what it means, modernist writers found in the short story cycle a suitable form to depict this sense of change. Drawing from a range of recent theories of the short story cycle and theories of place, this book highlights in a comparative way the role of the emergent short story genre and its seminal role in grasping and capturing a fragmented world through the various short and interconnected narratives and narrative strategies a short story cycle can accommodate. As such, this text contributes to the study of the modernist short story cycle, American literature, Irish literature, comparative literature, and theories and studies of place. The Book of Minor Perverts Benjamin Kahan, 2019-02-05 Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association Book Prize. Statue fondlers, wanderlusters, sex magicians, and nymphomaniacs: the story of these forgotten sexualities, what Michel Foucault deemed minor pervers, has never before been told. In The Book of Minor Perverts, Benjamin Kahan sets out to chart the proliferation of sexual classification that arose with the advent of nineteenth century sexology The book narrates the shift from Foucault's thousand aberrant sexualities to one homosexuality The focus here is less on the effects of queer identity and more on the lines of causation behind a surprising array of minor perverts who refuse to fit neatly into our familiar sexual frameworks The result stands at the intersection of history queer studies and the medical humanities to offer us a new way of feeling our way into the past Race, Manhood, and Modernism in America Mark Whalan, 2007 Narrative gender and history in Winesburg Ohio Sherwood Anderson and primitivism Double dealing in the South Waldo Frank Sherwood Anderson Jean Toomer and the ethnography of region Things are so immediate in Georgia articulating the South in Cane Cane body technologies and genealogy Cane audience and form Sherwood Anderson Harold Bloom, 2003 The works of Sherwood Anderson are explored here including Godliness Death in the Woods The Man Who Became A Woman I Want to Know Why and The Egg Different Dispatches David T. Humphries, 2006-03-09 In Different Dispatches David Humphries brings together in a new way a diverse group of well known American writers of the inter war period including Willa Cather Sherwood Anderson Ernest Hemmingway Zora Neale Hurston James Agee and Robert Penn Warren He demonstrates how these writers engage journalism in creating innovative texts that address mass culture as well as underlying cultural conditions The book will be of interest to readers approaching these well known authors for the first time or for scholars grappling with larger issues of cultural production and reception Amos Oz's Two Pens Arie M. Dubnov, 2023-02-28 The Hebrew novelist and political essayist Amos Oz 1939-2018 arguably Israel's leading intellectual was fond of describing himself as using two different pens the first used to write works of prose and fiction and the other to criticize the government and advocate for a political change This volume revisits the two pens parable It brings together scholars from various disciplines who assess Amos Oz's dual role in Israeli culture and society as an immensely popular novelist and a leading public intellectual Next to offering an intellectual portrait the chapters in this book highlight some of Oz's seminal works examine their reception evaluate key political and literary debates he was involved in as well as trace some of the connections between the two realms of his activity This book is a fascinating read for students researchers and academics of Israeli politics history literature and culture The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Israeli History and are accompanied by a new afterword by the Israeli novelist Lilah Nethanel
