Not Wanted On Voyage:

Timothy Findley's Novels Between Ethics and Postmodernism Dagmar Krause, 2005 Timothy Findley 1930 2002 is one of the most important contemporary Canadian writers His novels have been classified as postmodern exhibiting characteristic features such as parody historiographic metafiction and hybrid genres This classification of Findley as a postmodern writer however largely neglects the fact that Findley is deeply committed to the exploration of certain ethical and political themes Recurring topics in his work are for instance fascism environmental concerns and the problem of responsibility Sparked off by the fascinating question of how postmodernism and ethics can be reconciled at all and inspired by the so called ethical turn in the literary theory of the 1990s this study supplies a closer look at Findley's ethics with regard to its postmodern potential A detailed analysis of five of his novels The Wars Famous Last Words Not Wanted on the Voyage The Telling of Lies and Headhunter explores the ethical dimension of Findley's work and its consequences for his categorization as a postmodern writer

Canadian Science Fiction and Fantasy David Ketterer, 1992

The Novel and the Menagerie Kurt Koenigsberger, 2007 The first comprehensive account of the relation of collections of imperial beasts to narrative practices in England The Novel and the Menagerie explores an array of imaginative responses to the empire as a dominant shaping factor in English daily life Kurt Koenigsberger argues that domestic English novels and collections of zoological exotica especially zoos circuses traveling menageries and colonial and imperial exhibitions share important aesthetic strategies and cultural logics novels about English daily life and displays featuring collections of exotic animals both strive to relate Englishness to a larger empire conceived as an integrated whole Koenigsberger's investigations range from readings of novels by authors such as Charles Dickens Virginia Woolf Salman Rushdie and Angela Carter to analyses of ballads handbills broadsides and memoirs of showmen Attending closely to the collective English practices of imagining and delineating the empire as a whole The Novel and the Menagerie works at the juncture of literary criticism colonial discourse studies and cultural analysis to historicize the notion of totality in the theory and practice of the English novel In exploring the shapes of the novel in England and of the English institutions that collected exotic animals it offers fresh readings of familiar literary texts and opens up new ways of understanding the character of imperial Englishness across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

BOOK JACKET

The Empire Writes Back Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2003-12-16 The experience of colonization and the challenges of a post colonial world have produced an explosion of new writing in English This diverse and powerful body of literature has established a specific practice of post colonial writing in cultures as various as India Australia the West Indies and Canada and has challenged both the traditional canon and dominant ideas of literature and culture The Empire Writes Back was the first major theoretical account of a wide range of post colonial texts and their relation to the larger issues of post colonial culture and remains one of the most significant works published in this field The authors three leading figures in post colonial studies open up debates about the interrelationships of post colonial literatures investigate the powerful forces acting on language in the post colonial text and show how these texts constitute a radical critique of Eurocentric notions of literature and language This book is brilliant not only for its incisive analysis but for its accessibility for readers new to the field Now with an additional chapter and an updated bibliography The Empire Writes Back is essential for contemporary post colonial studies The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich, 1989-10-31 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan's hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy's social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel's narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions Jannaway's Mutiny Charles Wheeler, 2005-03 Jannaway's Mutiny is a novel of love and tragedy that reveals the secret causes of the British Navy's most catastrophic mutiny In September 1931 the sailors of the Royal Navy's Atlantic Fleet staged a mass mutiny at Invergordon Scotland In this historical fiction account Charles Gidley Wheeler tells the life story of Frank Jannaway a British sailor who finds himself at the focus of the mutiny Sent into the Navy against his will Frank experiences the hardship and injustice of life on the lower deck aboard a coal burning cruiser on the China Station After serving with distinction at the Battle of Jutland Frank reunites with Anita Yarrow whom he has known since his youth and who has been sent to Malta in disgrace Anita helps Frank her childhood hero to gain promotion to officer rank Years later when Anita's brother Roddy Yarrow is bullying his officers aboard a cruiser of the Atlantic Fleet Frank Jannaway is appointed to his ship The result is tragedy Encompassing an era from the Edwardian Golden Age to wartime Britain in the blitz Jannaway's Mutiny paints a vivid picture of love ambition self sacrifice and heroism and of the part that captains and admirals of the Royal Navy played in ringing down the final curtain on the British Empire The Bystander, 1908 Postmodern Fiction in Canada Johannes Willem Bertens, 1992 Literature and Gender Supriya Chaudhuri, Sajni Mukherji, 2002 This book brings together a rich collection of new work on the cultural interface of literature and gender ranging from essays on medieval and Renaissance Europe to nineteenth century political movements and representations in modern Indian film The contributors are some of the most distinguished scholars of our time working in Europe and in India And the Birds Began to Sing Jamie S. Scott, 1996 Taking as its starting point the ambiguous heritage left by the British Empire to its former colonies dominions and possessions And the Birds Began to Sing marks a new departure in the interdisciplinary study of religion and literature Gathered under the rubric Christianity and Colonialism essays on Brian Moore Timothy Findley Margaret Atwood and Marian Engel Thomas King Les A Murray David Malouf Mudrooroo and Philip McLaren R A K Mason Maurice Gee Keri Hulme Epeli Hau ofa J M Coetzee Christopher Okigbo Chinua Achebe Amos Tutuola and Ngugi wa Thiong o explore literary portrayals of the effects of British Christianity upon settler and native cultures in Northern Ireland Canada Australia New Zealand and the South Pacific and the Africas These essays share a sense of the dominant presence of Christianity as an inherited system of religious thought and practice to be adapted to changing post colonial conditions or to be resisted as the lingering ideology of colonial times In the second section of the collection Empire and World Religions essays on Paule Marshall and George Lamming Jean Rhys Olive Senior and Caribbean poetry V S Naipaul Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Bharati Mukherjee interrogate literature exploring relations between the scions of British imperialism and religious traditions other than Christianity Expressly concerned with literary embodiments of belief systems in post colonial cultures particularly West African religions in the Caribbean and Hinduism on the Indian subcontinent these essays also share a sense of Christianity as the pervasive presence of an ideological rhetoric among the economic social and political dimensions of imperialism In a polemical Afterword the editor argues that modes of reading religion and literature in post colonial cultures are characterised by a theodical preoccupation with a praxis of equity

Animal Fiction in Late

Twentieth-Century Canada Alice Higgs,2023-11-09 Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth Century Canada fulfils a vital contribution to the conversation surrounding animal representation as a point of continuity in national narratives and supports the idea that focusing on narratives of responsibility and care influences better relations with both non human animals and across settler Indigenous boundaries Alice Higgs engages with on going debates regarding reconciliation by demonstrating that it is imperative to critique settler colonial environmental frameworks and place autonomy back into Indigenous communities by bringing Indigenous practices of custodianship and relationality to bear more generally This book also develops a number of conversations in animal studies in relation to the politics of representation Higgs studies a range
