The Love Song of André P. Brink Leon de Kock, 2019-05-08 The Love Song of Andr P Brink is the first biography of this major South African novelist who during his lifetime was published in over 30 languages and ranked with the likes of Gabriel Garc a M rquez Peter Carey and Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Leon de Kock s eagerly awaited account of Brink s life is richly informed by a previously unavailable literary treasure the dissident Afrikaner s hoard of journal writing a veritable chronicle that was 54 years in the making In this massive new biographical source running to a million words Brink does not spare himself or anyone else for that matter as he narrates the ups and downs of his five marriages and his compulsive affairs with a great number of women These are precisely the topics that the rebel in both politics and sex skated over in his memoir A Fork in the Road De Kock s biographical study of the author who came close to winning the Nobel Prize for Literature not only synthesises the journals but also subjects them to searching critical analysis In addition the biographer measures the journals against additional sources both scholarly and otherwise among them the testimony of Brink's friends, family, wives and lovers. The Love Song of Andr  P Brink subjects Brink's literary legacy to a bracing scholarly re-evaluation making this major new biography a crucial addition to scholarship on Brink.

J. M. Coetzee in Context and Theory Elleke Boehmer, Robert Eaglestone, Katy Iddiols, 2011-10-27 Nobel Laureate and the first author to win the Booker Prize twice J M Coetzee is perhaps the world's leading living novelist writing in English. Including an international roster of world leading critics and novelists and drawing on new research, this innovative book analyses the whole range of Coetzee's work from his most recent novels through his memoirs and critical writing. It offers a range of perspectives on his relationship with the historical, political, cultural and social context of South Africa. It also contextualises Coetzee's work in relation to his literary influences: colonial and post-colonial history, the Holocaust and colonial genocides, the politics and meaning of the Nobel prize in South Africa and Coetzee's very public move from South Africa to Australia. Including a major unpublished essay by leading South African novelist Andr  Brink, this book offers the most up-to-date study of Coetzee's work currently available.

Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit, 2007-04-01 What is the role of the church in society? What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid, in the struggle against apartheid and during the period of transformation? The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these. They are all occasional pieces. They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated, always intended for specific audiences, always addressing issues of the particular moment.

New Contree, 2005

Die Houtbeen van St Sergius Chris van der Merwe, 2014-03-01 Chris van der Merwe vertel in hierdie boek die verhaal van sy eie omgang met die letterkunde n persoonlike verhaal maar ook n stimulus vir lesers en navorsers wat belangstel in verbande tussen letterkunde en lewe. Die opstelle wissel in styl. Sommige is geskryf as akademiese artikels, ander as resensies, ander as essays. Die resensies en essays is meer informeel, in toon en bevat minder verwysings en bibliografiese besonderhede as die akademiese artikels. n Paar opstelle is in Engels, getuigenis van die skrywer se verlangete om die boeiende veld van die Afrikaanse letterkunde te deel met mense wat Afrikaans nie magtig is nie of nie genoegsaam van Afrikaans kennis neem nie.

Historical Memory in Africa Mamadou Diawara, Bernard Lategan, J rn R sen, 2010-06-01 A vast amount of literature, both scholarly and popular, now exists on the subject of historical memory, but there is remarkably little available that is written from an African perspective. This volume explores the inner dynamics of memory in all its variations, from its most destructive and divisive impact to its remarkable potential to heal and reconcile. It addresses issues on both the conceptual and the pragmatic level, and its theoretical observations and reflections are informed by first-hand experiences and comparative reflections from a German, Indian and Korean perspective. A new insight is the importance of the future dimension of memory and hence the need to develop the ability to remember with the future in mind. Historical memory in an African context provides a rich kaleidoscope of the diverse experiences and perspectives, and yet there are recurring themes and similar conclusions connecting it to a global dialogue to which it has much to contribute but from which it also has much to receive Kaapse bibliotekaris ,2004 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Changing Men in Southern Africa Robert Morrell,2001-08-18 Despite claims that men are in crisis the domestic and public realms of Southern Africa are still dominated by men This examination of modern men aims to show that the power of man is not a fixed concept and that it is not true that all men share the spoils of dominance MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2006
