ICLSSEE 2023 Meida Rachmawati, Faisal Santiago, Eko Eddy Supriyanto, 2023-07-10 This book contains the proceedings of the International Conference on Law Social Science Economics and Education ICLSSEE 2023 on 6 May 2023 in Indonesia. This conference was held in collaboration with Nusantara Training and Research NTR at Universitas Borobudur Jakarta Indonesia. Papers from the conference are collected in a book of proceedings entitled Proceedings of the International Conference on Law Social Sciences Economics and Education ICLSSEE 2023. Presentations from the conference covering these disciplines will provide a lot of inspiring input and new treasures on law social sciences economics and education especially after the Covid 19 Pandemic. Thus it will contribute to the next generation of young researchers to generate innovative research findings and ideas. The hope is that scientific attitudes and skills through research will encourage the development of knowledge produced through research from various scholars in various regions. Finally we would like to express our sincere thanks to all of the steering committee colleagues for their cooperation in organizing the conference. Hopefully these seminars and conferences can be continued in the coming years with more insightful articles from inspiring research. We would also like to thank the invited speakers for their invaluable contributions and for sharing their visions in their talks.

Stories of Sickness Howard Brody, 2002-10-31 To understand the human meaning of illness we must turn to the stories we tell about illness suffering and medical care. This book explores the many dimensions of what illness means to the suffers and to those around them drawing on depictions of illness in great works of literature as well as on non fiction accounts. For this revised edition Stories of Sickness has been extensively updated and expanded especially with new material on narrative studies and on narrative ethics.

My Life's Footprints: H.E. Sirleaf Johnson, 2015-01-13 The story of Rhoda Peace Tumusiime is an inspirational and captivating journey of a girl who grew up in a remote village in Uganda and a family with marginal resources but also in a society where girls were married off at a tender age. The reader is able to walk with her right from her birthplace through her school life until she makes her way to the African Union headquarters in Addis Ababa a Pan African institution the African Union where she is now holding an elective position of Commissioner for Rural Economy and Agriculture. Hers is a story that proves that irrespective of one's background and station in life with the least of resources and support if one has the hope courage and determination to succeed the sky is the limit.

Family Lost and Found Drew Bridges, 2006. What does a person have to do to find out certain family secrets? Would life then make a little more sense? Maybe there are no big bad secrets. How do you know unless you look? John Randt grew up in suburban Ohio, the only child of loving and capable parents. They gave him a childhood that was orderly. Only when he went away to college did he discover that not every family in America would write the date of purchase on fresh raw eggs so each could be used in the order it was bought. In the Randt household, nothing was ever spoiled, lost, or out of place. It was perhaps inevitable that he would become interested in people with messy lives. At length, this would take him on a trip of discovery that included a southern community in the process of losing its own particular character and the last remnants of its innocence. He found himself involved with a one hundred year old family mystery, met a race car driving female cousin, and a cast of other unforgettable characters. He ultimately found more than he sought. Junk Fiction S. T. Joshi, 2009-01-01.
