two volume set are hundreds of amazing true short stories Relive the adventures and exciting day to day experiences of the early pioneers who walked 2 000 miles on the Oregon Trail to the new land of their dreams Oregon Imagine the hardships they endured during the six to seven months in the wilderness deadly diseases attacks by Indians and wild animals broken down covered wagons crippling accidents choking dust rutted and muddy mountain trails rushing rivers and sudden snowstorms The threat of their livestock being stolen or stampeded the lack of suitable grass for their animals drowning and the shortage of their own food and clean water supply was a constant worry for these determined pioneers Death took its toll on these families Thousands of hastily dug graves lined the trail It is estimated that fifty three thousand brave souls had successfully made the adventurous journey by the year 1860 Some even being born along the way Before the white man brought diseases alcohol and firearms the Indian population numbered in the tens of thousands with nearly one hundred tribes and bands By 1860 less than two thousand Indians could be found living in the Willamette Valley of Oregon From late summer into early winter a continuous stream of exhausted near starving wagon train pioneers poured into Oregon and Washington Remember that once they arrived they had to build a rustic log cabin shelter for their livestock a hole dug for the outhouse land cleared the fertile land plowed and prepared for planting crops that wouldn't be harvested for another year from precious secret caches of vegetable seeds grains and tubers carefully packed for the journey and hidden in flour bags and bedding Survival became the primary objective but they occasionally had a little fun and of course romance These are the stories they told their friends and attentive grandchildren The stories they lived and shared are the stories we read today Let us not forget what they did Gentry W Cutsforth Scraps & Shirrtails II Bonnie K.
