The Process Perspective II John B. Cobb,2011-03-01 This book begins where the original book left off Retaining its reader friendly question and answer format John B Cobb Jr tackles new questions and misunderstandings about process theology Divided into three sections metaphysics science and faith a variety of questions on topics of contemporary interest are addressed What is the process view of angels and demons How does process explain free will How does process theology respond to stem cells and ensoulment How does process explain God and suffering What is the relationship between process evangelical and liberal theologies In answering these and other questions Cobb opens our minds to new understandings and gives us new ways to relate to our world and the God at work within it

Spiritual Leadership in a Secular Age Edward H Hammett,2013-05-09

Your Church in Rhythm Bruce B. Miller,2011-03-01 A gentle new way for church leaders to survive stress and burnout Bruce Miller debunks the idea of balance basically trying to have it all all the time Most churches and their pastors try to do everything at once and feel guilty if any one aspect worship ministries outreach etc is neglected He replaces the exhausting concept of balance with the idea of rhythm churches like people need to give attention to different programs and ministries at different times basically by attending to their seasons and cycles Offers an innovative new model for church leaders Miller has been influential in the formation and promotion of Church Based Training as in international movement Offers a proven method for avoiding burnout for church leaders and members by doing the right things at the right time The author offers much need help to overwhelmed leaders and shows them how to apply Miller's seasonal cyclical approach to church life

Christ-Centered Coaching Jane Creswell,2006-05-01 Creswell draws from her extensive corporate and ministry coaching experience to provide ministers and other church leaders a clear definition of what coaching is and the seven basic benefits an individual church or group can receive through a qualified coach Solidly based in experience each chapter is built upon an actual scenario growing out of Creswell's own coaching experience Along with the illustration she provides scriptural teaching gives explicit information on the purpose and merits of coaching additional resources and tips for coaching

The Calling of Congregational Leadership Larry L. McSwain,2013-05-30 Leading is a calling from God but that doesn't mean it is easy There are choices to be made about what your congregation believes how your church organizes for effective ministry and how your church serves the settings of which you are a part The good news is that others have gone before you Author Larry L McSwain's forty years of experience can help guide you through these choices Rooted in research The Calling of Congregational Leadership teaches a three pronged approach to congregational leadership being a good leader the knowledge needed by the leader and the managing of ministry leadership By using this practical holistic approach to leading congregations McSwain shows you how to use your church's potential for conveying the power of God in the lives you touch The Calling of Congregational Leadership is for those who seek to enlarge the understanding of their leadership to make their communities of faith more vital and more reflective of the mission of God in the world

Innovative Planning Thomas C Wrenn,2013-05-09 For leaders of small organizations churches and businesses who do not have a regular ongoing planning process this book will be your guide to becoming an innovative planner for your group's future Innovative Planning presents a solid process for developing complete organizational planning from vision to mission to strategies It also includes the day to day operations the level at which the vision ultimately comes to fruition Experienced pastor and certified leadership coach and consultant Bud Wrenn draws on his organizational experiences to help leaders become four dimensional planners Not everyone in your group church or organization think in visionary terms But as an organizational leader it is crucial for you to communicate the visionary message Foreword by Rick Warren     Recovering Hope for Your Church Hammett, Edward H.,2014-08-30 Why seems to be on the lips of many church judicatory and denominational leaders today Why has our church plateaued Why are so few young leaders going into church based ministries Why are so few interested in church these days Recovering Hope uncovers the whys creating space to embrace new realities commit to the tough road of recovery and develop new skills structures and ministry designs through a process of spiritual discernment congregational coaching and a deeper reliance on the work and ministry of the Holy Spirit Eddie Hammett a Professional Certified Coach and Church and Clergy Coach for the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina provides a step by step process of hope and health to encourage guide and inspire pastors leaders churches regions and denominations that recovery of hope is possible A TCP Leadership Series title     Fish Or Cut Bait John Edmund Kaiser,2011 Through extensive research Dr John Kaiser shares the best practices of ten successful congregations Focusing explicitly on decision making rather than planning structure relationships or any other host of factors Fish or Cut Bait outlines how these congregations boards leaders provide both accountability and support for pastors Kaiser details the five questions that effective churches use when making healthy decisions to remain true to their mission What must be done Who says so Who takes the lead What s it going to cost What if there is trouble He includes the top ten things that the congregation pastor staff board and tribe need to avoid Regardless of size tongue tribe or style if your congregation wants to go fishing in deeper waters for a spiritual catch this book will fit nicely in your tackle box     Going Global Gary V Nelson,Gordon W. King,Terry Smith,2011-05-01 The ways to be effective in global missions have changed The authors believe that content and values must undergird the North American local church s approach to global mission It is not enough to do something It is in fact possible to do all of the right things in all of the wrong ways with negative results It is also possible that mission over there can have as much or more on the church at home This book discusses common principles and practices that inform and energize local churches as they enter the global ministry arena This book will assist church leadership as they look for resources to help them balance the agenda of short term versus long term mission fund raising and the tension between evangelism and compassionate social ministry     Reaching People under 30 while Keeping People over 60 Edward H Hammett,2015-11-10 Seasoned church consultant Edward H Hammett shares his latest insights and suggestions for churches seeking to serve all generations This is an updated version of Hammett s 2007 book Reaching People Under 40 while Keeping People Over 60 that expands the reach another decade and emphasizes diversity with insight from new contributors Paul L Anderson and Cornell Thomas A TCP Books title     Borderland Churches Gary V

Nelson, 2009-01-01 Borderland Churches is a call to embrace the pluralistic post Christian and postmodern culture with a sense of opportunity and hope The author uses the image of the church crossing over into an in between time a place where faith is lived outside the walls of the church engaging the community in incarnational ways To live in that precarious but exhilarating place where faith and other faiths and no faith meet Only individuals and congregations that accept this new reality will be able to carry on Christian ministry in this new cultural situation A TCP Leadership Series title Leading in Disorienting Times Gary V. Nelson, Peter M. Dickens, 2015-05-05 Jack Mezirow a leader in education theory suggests that all transformative learning begins with a disorienting dilemma an idea or experience that challenges or shifts fundamental values and assumptions Gary Nelson and Peter Dickens pastors and teachers with vast experience working with congregations and organizations believe it is time for Christian leaders to be disoriented for the fundamental values and assumptions of Christian leadership to be reframed and broken down so they can see the leadership task in new ways Blending current literature from both Christian and secular scholarship with individual and organizational examples Leading in Disorienting Times provides support for the concept of servant leadership that may be initially disorienting but is ultimately liberating Kingdom People Living by Kingdom Principles Dalton Jenkins, 2013-07 We do not have to travel to some foreign country to locate the mission field Right here literally in our backyards the world has come to us The church's basic mission is to preach the gospel of the kingdom of God this message has social and political aspects to its application This is the fundamental responsibility of the church This message is holistic and affects the total person As the church develops a comprehensive and practical understanding of missions this will propel Christians to act out their missional call The challenge as to how to be truly missional requires those people considered to be disciples to engage their communities in their everyday lives To capture the full essence of missions this book introduces a process called strategic evangelism This process serves to raise awareness by helping to clarify the nature of the structures and practices of the church relating to its missional focus to develop a better awareness of local missions and to introduce a process that will assist people to live out the mission by engaging their communities So Much Better Penny Long Marler, D Bruce Roberts, Janet Maykus, James Bowers, Larry Dill, Brenda K. Harewood, Richard Hester, Sheila Kirton-Robbins, Marianne LaBarre, Lis Van Harten, Kelli Walker-Jones, 2013-03-15 Meant to both inspire and inform pastoral leaders So Much Better examines the impact of peer group participation on pastoral leaders their families and ministries This book goes beyond numbers and data by breathing life into the statistical bones At this book's heart are seven peer group models including stories and examples from participants families and church members Also featured is information about peer group recruitment leadership content and structure and practical advice about the cost sustainability and evaluation of peer groups So Much Better can change the way you think about and perform your ministry and lead you to a life that is well so much better Authors Penny Long Marler James Bowers Larry Dill Brenda K Harewood Richard Hester Sheila Kirton Robbins Marianne LaBarre Janet Maykus D Bruce
