Assessing Writing, Teaching Writers Mary Ann Smith,Sherry Seale Swain,2016 Many writing teachers are searching for a better way to turn student writing into teaching and learning opportunities without being crushed under the weight of student papers This book introduces a rubric designed by the National Writing Project the Analytic Writing Continuum AWC that is making its way into classrooms across the country at all grade levels The authors use sample student writing and multiple classroom scenarios to illustrate how teachers have adapted this flexible tool to meet the needs of their students including using the AWC to teach revision give feedback direct peer to peer response groups and serve as a formative assessment guide This resource also discusses how to set up a local scoring session and how to use the AWC in professional development Book Features Introduces teachers to a powerful assessment system and teaching tool to support student writing achievement Offers a diagnostic tool for guiding students toward a common understanding of the qualities of good writing Provides ideas for helping students learn from models and give productive feedback to peers Illustrates ways to adjust the AWC to various grade levels and different teaching goals Smith and Swain reveal how the Analytic Writing Continuum assessment tool can be used as a catalyst for a deeper understanding of writing and a source for a common language for teaching and learning writing I would recommend this book to all involved in the process of English language arts curriculum and instruction Jessica Early Arizona State University As a teacher of diverse students in myriad grades I ve found the Analytic Writing Continuum to be an invaluable tool If you teach writing you need this book Bob Crongeyer codirector Area 3 Writing Project at UC Davis Developing Auto-instructional Materials A.J. Romiszowski,2013-12-16 This two volume work on the development of instruction is planned as a companion to an earlier book Designing Instructional Systems The present work continues the micro design stages of lesson and instructional materials development Taken together these two volumes give extensive coverage of practical techniques for the development of instruction This title draws a distinction between instructional design and instructional development although some authors seem to use the two terms synonymously The structure of the content will enable the two volumes to be used conveniently as both initial reading or later reference material Writing Time Sean Franzel,2023-11-15 Cowinner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Writing Time shows how serial literature based in journals and anthologies shaped the awareness of time at a transformative moment in the European literary and political landscapes Sean Franzel explores how German speaking authors and editors write time both by writing about time and by mapping time itself through specific literary formats Through case studies of such writers as F J Bertuch K A B ttinger J W Goethe Ludwig B rne and Heinrich Heine Franzel analyzes how serial writing predicated on open ended continuation becomes a privileged mode of social commentary and literary entertainment and provides readers with an ongoing history of the present or Zeitgeschichte Drawing from media theory and periodical studies as well as from Reinhart Koselleck s work on processes of temporalization and untimely models of historical time Writing Time presents smaller literary forms the urban tableau cultural reportage and caricature as new ways of imagining temporal unfolding recentring periodicals and other serial forms at the heart of nineteenth century print culture

Philosophy and the Art of Writing Richard Shusterman,2022-05-10 Philosophy and literature enjoy a close complex relationship Elucidating the connections between these two fields this book examines the ways philosophy deploys literary means to advance its practice particularly as a way of life that extends beyond literary forms and words into physical deeds nonlinguistic expression and subjective moods and feelings Exploring thinkers from Socrates and Confucius to Foucault and Simone de Beauvoir Richard Shusterman probes the question of what roles literature could play in a vision of philosophy as something essentially lived rather than merely written To develop this vision of philosophy that incorporates literature but seeks to go beyond the verbal to realize the embodied fullness of life and capture its inexpressible dimensions Shusterman gives particular attention to authors who straddle the literature philosophical divide from Augustine and Montaigne through Wordsworth and Kierkegaard to T S Eliot Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot and Bertrand Russell The book concludes with a chapter on the Chinese art of writing with its mixture of poetry calligraphy and painting Philosophy and the Art of Writing should interest students and researchers in literary theory and philosophy It also opens the practice of philosophy to people who are not professionals in the writing of philosophy or literary theory
