Puttering Round:

The Wedding Heard 'Round the World Michael McConnell, Jack Baker, 2016-01-01 On September 3 1971 Michael McConnell and Jack Baker exchanged vows in the first legal same sex wedding in the United States Their remarkable story is told here for the first time a unique account of the passion and energy of the gay liberation movement in the sixties and seventies At the dawn of the modern gay movement while New York's Stonewall riots and San Francisco's emerging political activism bloomed these two young men insisted on making their commitment a legal reality They were already crusaders for gay rights Jack had twice been elected the University of Minnesota's student president the first openly gay university student president in the country an election reported by Walter Cronkite on network TV news They were featured in Look magazine's special issue about the American family and received letters of support from around the world The couple navigated complex procedures to obtain a state issued marriage license Their ceremony was conducted by a Methodist minister in a friend's tiny Minneapolis apartment Wearing matching white pantsuits exchanging custom designed rings and sharing a tiered wedding cake Michael and Jack celebrated their historic marriage After reciting their vows they sealed their promise to love and honor each other with a kiss and a signed marriage certificate Repercussions were immediate Michael's job offer at the University of Minnesota was rescinded leading him to wage a battle against job discrimination with the help of the Minnesota Civil Liberties Union The couple eventually reached the U S Supreme Court with two precedent setting cases Michael and Jack have retired from the public spotlight but after four decades their marriage is still their joy and comfort Living quietly in a Minneapolis bungalow they exemplify a contemporary version of the American dream Only now with marriage equality in the headlines and the Supreme Court decision to make love the law of the land are they willing to tell the entire story of their groundbreaking experiences TIME magazine listed the twenty five most influential marriages of all time and included Michael and Jack and they were recently profiled in a cover story in the Sunday New York Times Their long campaign for marriage equality and insistence on equal rights for all citizens is a model for advocates of social justice and an inspiration for everyone who struggles for acceptance in a less than equal world Automotive Abstracts John Younger, 1923

Argosy All-story Weekly, 1928 Ernest Buckler Marta Dvořák, 2006-01-01 Margaret Atwood called Ernest Buckler one of the pathbreakers for the modern Canadian novel yet he has slipped into relative obscurity This new book by Marta Dvořák Ernest Buckler Rediscovery and Reassessment breaks new ground in Canadian literary studies by analyzing some of Buckler's works that have remained unknown or unexplored by critics and by addressing the formalistic innovations of these texts It allows a general readership to discover and an international specialized readership to reassess the wide even eclectic scope of an author best known for his first novel The Mountain and the Valley Marta Dvořák situates Buckler firmly within his cultural and intellectual environment She argues the importance of his connections with Emerson and the American transcendental milieu and demonstrates his links with Romantics such as Schopenhauer and Shelley and modernists like

Joyce Faulkner and Mansfield as well as intellectuals from Aristotle to Aquinas She explores his philosophical vision and his complex adventurous relationship with language Extracts from Buckler s published and unpublished material juxtaposed with those from a wide range of writers from Henry James to Foucault offer new illuminating perspectives The progressive structure of the book will draw readers in to discussions on shared concerns the nostalgia for a vanished past the relationship between family and community the rural and the urban or the questioning of and coming to terms with ethics and the social fabric of today s rapidly changing technological horizon in which traditional values are eroding
